To Each of You at Fair Park

We present the 1965 SEQUOYAH.

Some memories fade quickly; others last forever. The SEQUOYAH has its purpose in prolonging many of them. Its pages fold back to help recount many of the experiences you have had at Fair Park. Its staff has striven to bring to you a reminder of your classmates, teachers, and the grand traditions which you identify with Fair Park.

To each individual the tradition of the SEQUOYAH is held dear. It records the activities of the school year and reveals the personality of that year. The SEQUOYAH is classrooms, organizations, the football team, pep rallies, personalities, and achievements. But most of all it is the student.

And so to you we dedicate this SEQUOYAH.

The Fair Park Indian . . . a Symbol

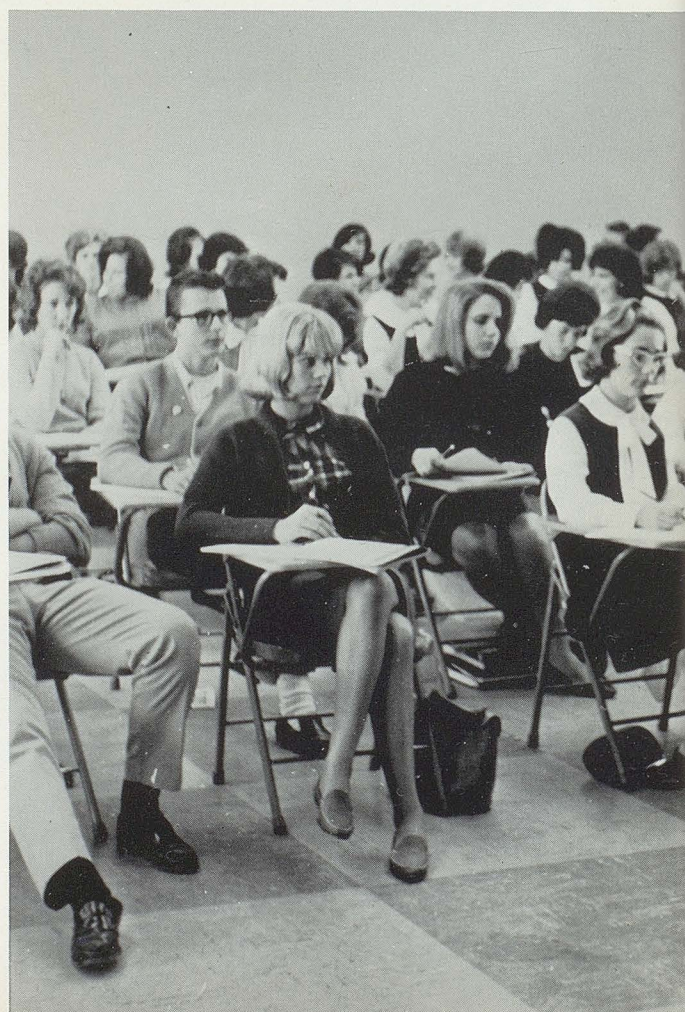

The Indian, symbolizing unity in the student body, has been the traditional symbol since the construction of Fair Park in 1928. The visible strength of the wooden chief represents each individual who has contributed his talents to the creation of the Fair Park image.

School spirit is promoted, and learning is encouraged as homage is paid to the well-loved symbol. Each member of the tribe, teacher and student, strives to live within the code of honor and scholarship set before him.

The teacher, the student, the group—Each is an integral part of Fair Park.

“Each individual has a place to fill in the world and is important in some respect . . .”

Nathaniel Hawthorne

Self-Discipline Becomes a Part of Life

Glimpses of a Passing Year

Fair Park is more than classrooms and books. There are hours filled with excitement generated by a well-played ball game, with joy from associations with fellow students, and pride in accomplishment. Each experience will build a lasting memory for the future.

Teamwork Builds Successes

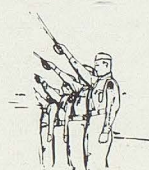

When John Stuart Mill said, "The worth of a state, in the long run, is the worth of the individuals composing it." He might well have been speaking of Fair Park. The combined efforts of students and teachers have achieved many successes this year. Athletic teams, the new pep squad, the student council, and others have all brought honor to the school through their spirited team efforts.

FACULTY

Gaining knowledge, stimulating thought, preparing for life . . . this is education. Utilizing the abilities of teachers, receiving guidance from administrators . . . these are tools of education. Here is Fair Park's administration and faculty, equipping the student for his responsibilities.

Our Principal

Fair Park High School is guided through each year by principal Earl A. McKenzie. In his five years as chief administrator, he has helped the student body to reach new heights of accomplishment.

Mr. McKenzie received his B.S. degree at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, and his Master's degree from the University of Arkansas. His college career was interrupted when he joined the army at the beginning of World War II. Having attained the rank of major, he gave up his army career in 1947 to return to school and study teaching. His teaching career began in the chemistry department of Fair Park in 1949. Five years later he left Fair Park to serve as an elementary school principal. In 1956 he became supervisor of instruction for the Caddo Parish School Board. In 1960 he was appointed principal of Fair Park High School.

Throughout his career, Mr. McKenzie has been active in professional organizations. He is now serving as president of the Caddo Parish Administrators' Club, and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Caddo Council of P.T.A. He is chairman of the First District Triple A Athletic Association.

Outside of his school associations he is an active member of the Mangum Memorial Methodist Church.

To each student and teacher Mr. McKenzie gives understanding and wise leadership. He is anxious to see each person reach his full capabilities through education. Always he is ready to listen, to counsel, to praise, and to find ways to improve Fair Park—its face, its students, and its curriculum.

This is Fair Park's principal—a man of devotion, good humor, experience, capability, and leadership.

Mrs. Murphy helps a student plan a schedule.

The smooth and efficient operation of Fair Park is due to the efforts of the assistant principals. Together they guide the student body through the mechanics of school life. Mr. Brantly is in charge of administration. He supervises the maintenance of the building and students' transportation. He also handles all discipline and attendance problems.

Mrs. Murphy is head of the program of instruction. She works closely with the teachers in planning curriculum and solving classroom problems. Students receive help from her in planning schedules. All textbooks and teaching materials are under her supervision.

Counselors Guide Students

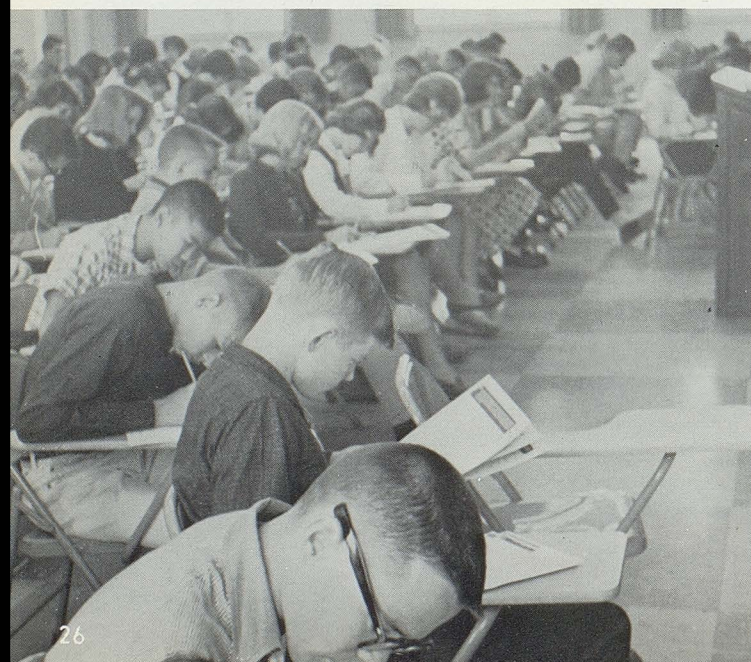

Guidance counselors are available to the students to provide help and direction through the high school years. Each person can consult them about class schedules and be guided into academic areas that will best suit his capabilities. He can receive information on colleges and be advised on available scholarships.

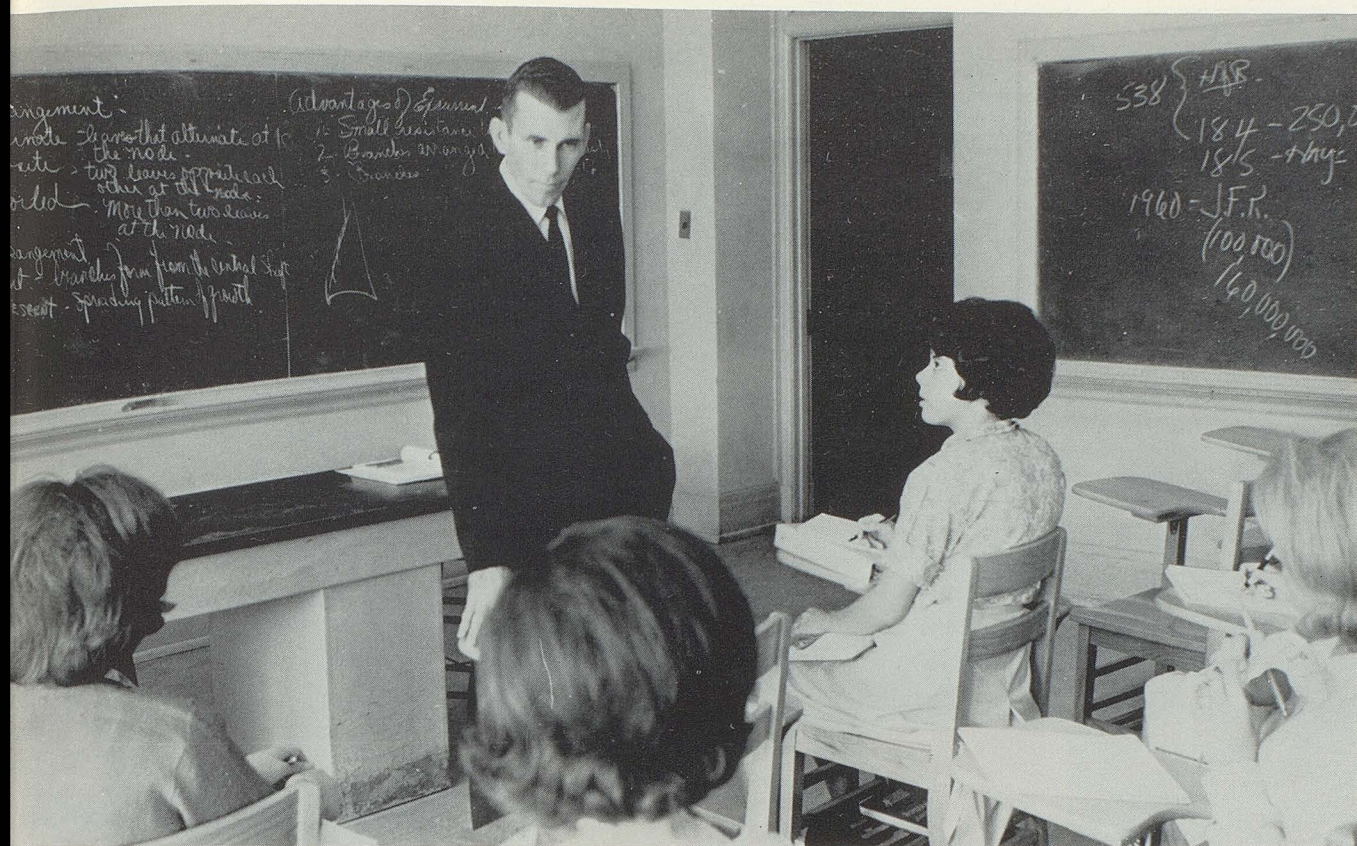

The counseling office conducts standardized tests of achievement and mental maturity. From the results of these tests, each student can be helped to evaluate himself and be given vocational guidance for the future.

Mr. Matlock gives advice on vocations.
Seniors take a standardized test.

Mrs. Miller talks about college opportunities.

For years men have strived to improve their teaching. In the fifteenth century Galileo observed, "You cannot teach a man anything; you can only help him to find it within himself." Today Fair Park's teachers are concerned for their students, hoping that they will find it within themselves to learn. The faculty is close to the students, revealing knowledge and encouraging study. Each teacher strives to communicate his subject in the best possible way. Thus he fulfills the responsibility which he has assumed—teaching youth.

English . . . A Tool

Expression of one's ideas and the interpretation of the ideas of others are taught through studies in English usage and great literature. Students are encouraged to master the principles of grammar, and to express themselves creatively with the pen. Reading is proved a source of pleasure and wisdom with the studies of American, and English literature. "Silas Marner" and "Julius Caesar", "Our Town," and "Macbeth" highlight the three years in that order.

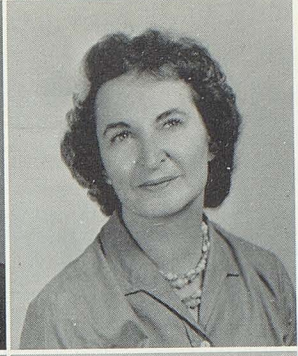

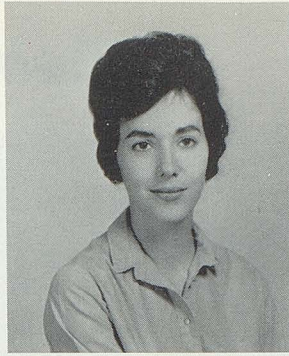

Mrs. McNeese aids Susan Hanson in understanding her English assignment better.

An advance speech class reads an original T.V. script.

Drama is emphasized as a major phase of speech training. Work in television, stage production, and choral reading, brings out often unnoticed ability. Speech training creates expressive students.

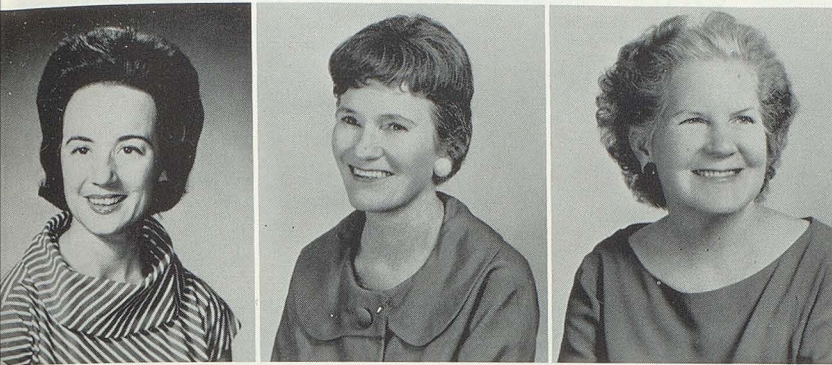

French, Spanish, and Latin are offered to the students on first, second, and third year levels. Courses of this nature help a person to become more universal by learning about foreign people and their lives through the knowledge of their language.

The journalism department encourages growth through writing clear and original ideas. Training in journalism is helpful in further education and in daily living. Reporters and editors alike work hard together to publish a bi-weekly paper for the student body.

A foreign language aid is used by Mrs. Chandler to teach her students better pronunciation.

Art

Ever since the beginning, when man scratched pictures on cave walls and hummed coarse tunes, he has strived endlessly to perfect his musical and artistic abilities. Fair Park's art and musical departments offer to anyone interested, an excellent program designed to develop the student's abilities and to create his own style and technique.

The art courses may be taken at first through fourth year levels of study. They vary from water-color and oil painting to pottery making.

Intermediate, military, and concert bands, intermediate and symphony orchestras, and A and B Choirs make up the music curriculum. Performance, skill, and appreciation of good music are developed in these courses.

Students Look Beyond the Community

Civics teaches students, not only about the functions of the government, but also stresses current events.

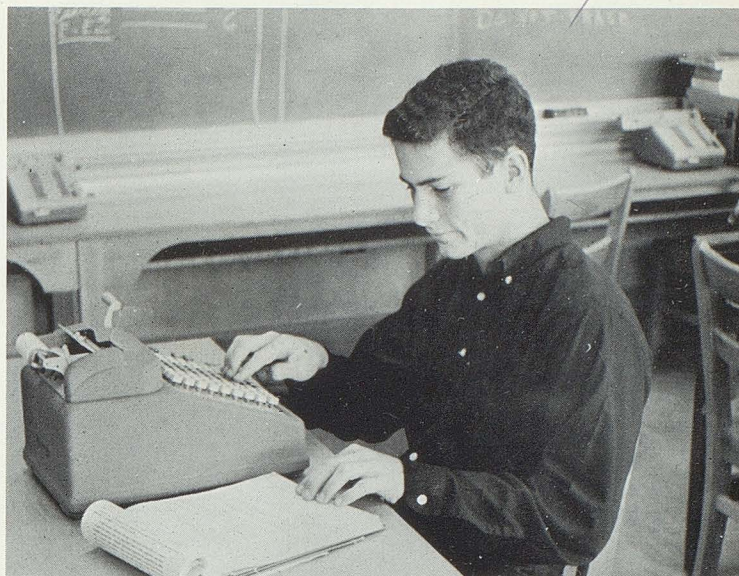

Closeness to one's fellow man in a world of shortened distances and time is felt by students who are studying the social sciences. Civics, a basic requirement, teaches the forms and functions of government and instills an awareness of current events. American and World History explore the development of mankind. Geography and economics help the student keep pace with the modern world.

Some Seek Business Education

Hard at work as usual, James

Students planning to enter the business world find the commercial courses a valuable asset. Courses include shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, business English, and office practice. Typing is chosen by a large percentage of the student body because of its wide usefulness. Upon graduation a commerce student should be able to take on full responsibility of a permanent job. Students planning to major in business administration in college find that they receive a concrete foundation through these courses.

Business techniques train students for the future.

Fact and Theory Join in Math and Science

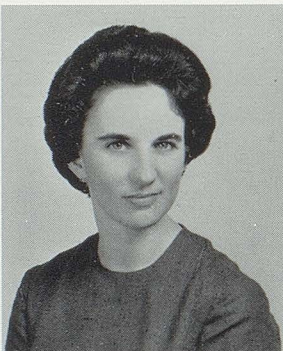

Advanced math, taught by Mr. Humble, opens the door to a higher level of learning in mathematics.

Several different types of math and science are offered. General science provides a broad general knowledge of all the sciences. Biology involves the study of plant and animal life. Chemistry and physics are both physical sciences dealing with the composition of matter. While the study of chemistry deals with the changes of composition which materials undergo, physics is primarily concerned with changes in physical structure. Mathematics is the language of the sciences. There are two main fields of math, analytical and practical. To some degree both are applied to all math courses. Geometry, algebra I and II, and advanced math are considered analytical because they are preparation for future work in college. Practical courses like business and general math provide necessary knowledge to begin work immediately after high school.

Agriculture students like Glen Henly gain knowledge through experience. Glen saddles his horse for an early evening ride.

Food preparation and cooking skills are mastered by girls taking home economics.

Mr. Mulloy, agriculture instructor, visits Sonny Ashford to inspect his animals and farm setup.

Students looking ahead often participate in subjects that will be of great value in their chosen profession. Courses in interviewing and employment procedures plus the actual experience of working are offered through Distributive Education Program. Participation in this program allows a student valuable opportunities in establishing a job to be continued after graduation.

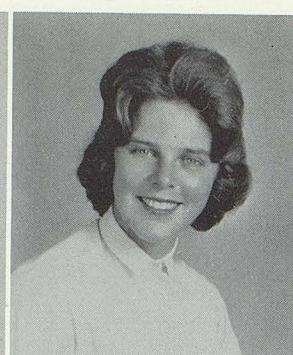

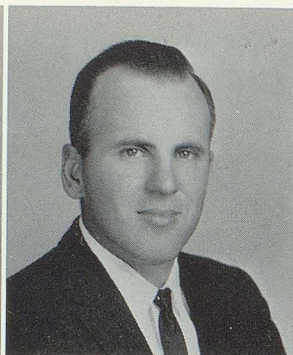

Home Economics, a study of the practical arts, is enjoyed by girls interested in learning crafts to be applied in future life. Instruction is given in sewing, cooking, and other household arts, along with help in personality development and everyday problems.

Future farmers find courses in agriculture to be most interesting and valuable to them. They are taught to raise and to maintain crops, to care for animals, and to manage a farm.

D.E. students complete a written assignment before leaving for their jobs.

Jim Orton Gym and ROTC Build Character and Health

Exercises, such as sit-ups, promote physical fitness.

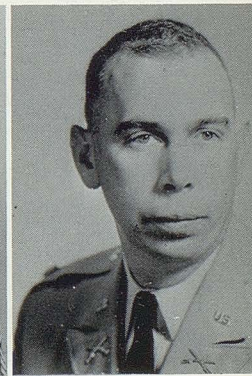

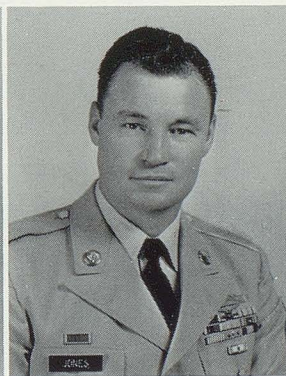

The purpose of the ROTC at Fair Park is to develop character through self-discipline. Precision, a respect for authority, and orderliness are also important points of the program. Through drilling, cadets realize that the success of any organization depends more on teamwork than unrelated individualism.

The accents of the physical education program are of individual skills and teamwork. For the girls there is tennis, basketball, volleyball, archery, and softball. Football, basketball, volleyball, track, and baseball compose the boys' program.

Classroom instruction is an important part of ROTC training.

Industrial Arts Stress Manual Skills

In this age of obsolescence there still remains possibly the oldest machine known to man. This machine, which has not become antiquated, is the human hand. Through the metal work, graphic arts, printing, woodwork, and mechanical drawing courses one can develop skills which will help him produce at his best. Personal pride and confidence is enlarged with each successful handicraft made. Many industrial arts students plan to further their training into a rewarding career as well as a part-time hobby.

Soldering is a valuable skill offered in the industrial arts program.

Mr. Martens helps a student to learn the printing process by the use of the printing press.

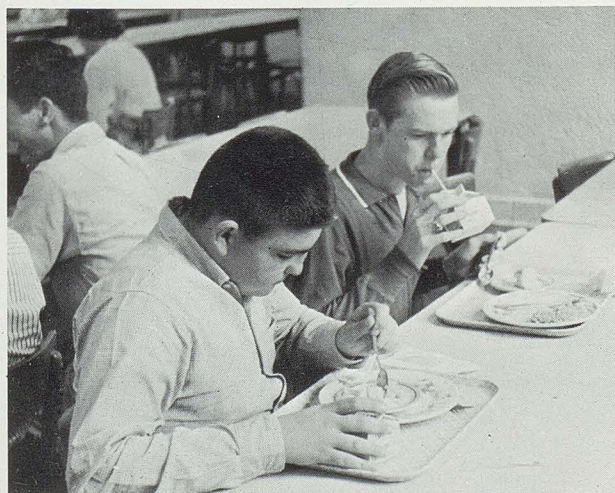

PTA EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—FIRST ROW: Mrs. R. L. Waller, Mrs. G. L. Ruttle, Mrs. C. E. Strickland, Mrs. W. O. Pickering, Mrs. E. A. Davis, Mrs. L. E. Gregory, Recording Secretary; Mrs. L. C. Estill, Historian; Mrs. Sam O'Donnell, Treasurer; Mrs. Harry Gremillion, President; Mrs. A. J. Kerr, First Vice-President; Mrs. Forest Dunn, Second Vice-President; and Mrs. D. G. Burrow, Corresponding Secretary.

In establishing a relationship between the school and the community, the Parent-Teacher Organization plays an important role. The PTA is affiliated with both state and national organizations. Meetings are held four times a year and membership is open to parents of all students. In addition to sponsoring many activities, such as "Back-to-School Night", the PTA has a special "Helping Hand" fund which aids needy students.

Nutritious meals are planned and served to the students each school day. Students not only enjoy the meals, but find a place to meet and talk with their friends. The lunch period is divided into three shifts to accommodate the growing student body. A choice of a hot meal or a sandwich lunch is offered.

CAFETERIA meals are enjoyed daily by the students.

 it has been that knowing you and I hope we will have some class together are fr. se. You your friend
 "Hope"

Bob, I've never laughed at anyone as much as I have you. You're a blast and a half!! Bob, I'm truly sorry about that wild birthday party of mine but you just can't control Mike. Everytime I pass by that fence I start laughing although it wasn't funny at the time. Try your best to be good this summer if that's not asking too much.

Love ya!!

Who's Who of Fair Park

To those leaders . . .

Whose earnest efforts have united the student body into one, striving for a common goal. A leader injects enthusiasm into a purpose. With diligence he strives to combine individual talents to achieve an end. A large quantity of the leader's time is consumed in intense work and planning. He must give of himself so that the faith placed in student abilities will be constantly renewed. There are many leaders worthy of recognition and hundreds of loyal followers deserving praise. They are realized and appreciated daily.

Pelican Staters . . .

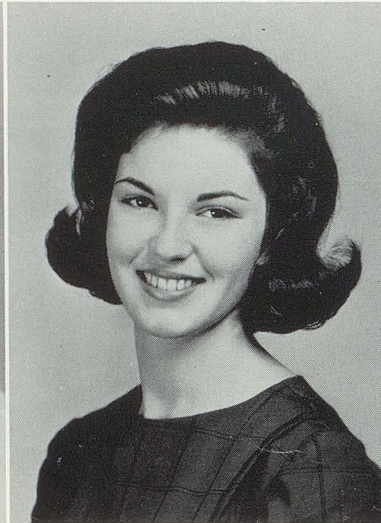

As guests of the American Legion, sixteen Fair Park Pelican Staters spent the last week of August on the campus of Louisiana State University. For nine days they learned the fundamentals of government and were joined by other members from high schools throughout the state. The time spent at the mythical Boy and Girl Pelican State was filled with intense study of city, parish and state government. The main purpose of this annual event is to acquaint students in the duties, privileges, rights and responsi-

ORGANIZATIONS

. . . Providing students with guidance through extra curricular activities and developing individual interests . . . Action-filled experiences . . . A president calling a meeting to order, a committee discussing a suggestion, or a student viewing a finished piece of work with pride . . . All form an outlet for student initiative.

Student Council Wins State Presidency

A big year was in store for Fair Park's student council. Representatives returned from state convention with the Louisiana Student Council Presidency. The office is held by the entire council. Representatives are sent to supervise any important activity in the state.

The council performs many worthwhile projects throughout the year. At Christmas time they collect food and distribute it to needy families. Later in the year they recruit volunteers for the March of Dimes drive. They provide ushers for programs such as the Benny Goodman show, the Ice Capades, and rodeos.

These and other activities make Fair Park's Student Council an active and vital organization.

Luther Horton receives the oath of office as state president of the Student Council Convention.

Junior Red Cross Active in Community

An active service organization, the Junior Red Cross serves both school and community. The student body put to full use the student directories they edited containing the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all Indians. At Homecoming Fair Park lasses, wearing corsages supplied by the Red Cross, cheered the tribesmen to our first Homecoming victory. Local hospitals were brightened at holiday seasons by tray favors sent by the club on Halloween, Christmas, New Year, and Easter.

Representatives from each first period class met on the second and fourth Fridays of each month. Sponsored by Miss Fox, work meetings were also held.

Safety Is Emphasized at Fair Park

OFFICERS: Don Strain, President; Danny Lamb, Vice President, School Safety; Mickey Whitney, Vice President, Home Safety; Wayne Pardue, Vice President, Traffic Safety; Harlan Lee, Secretary-Treasurer; Don Fritz, Sponsor; Not Pictured, Louise Cottrell, First Vice President.

Accidents can be prevented, and the Safety Council helps to see that they are. Each year they present a safety program to reduce accidents and to prevent them from happening in the school. The members work with public officials to make their program an effective one. The duty of the Safety Council is to see that all cars parked on school property are registered with the school office.

Key Club . . . Initiative

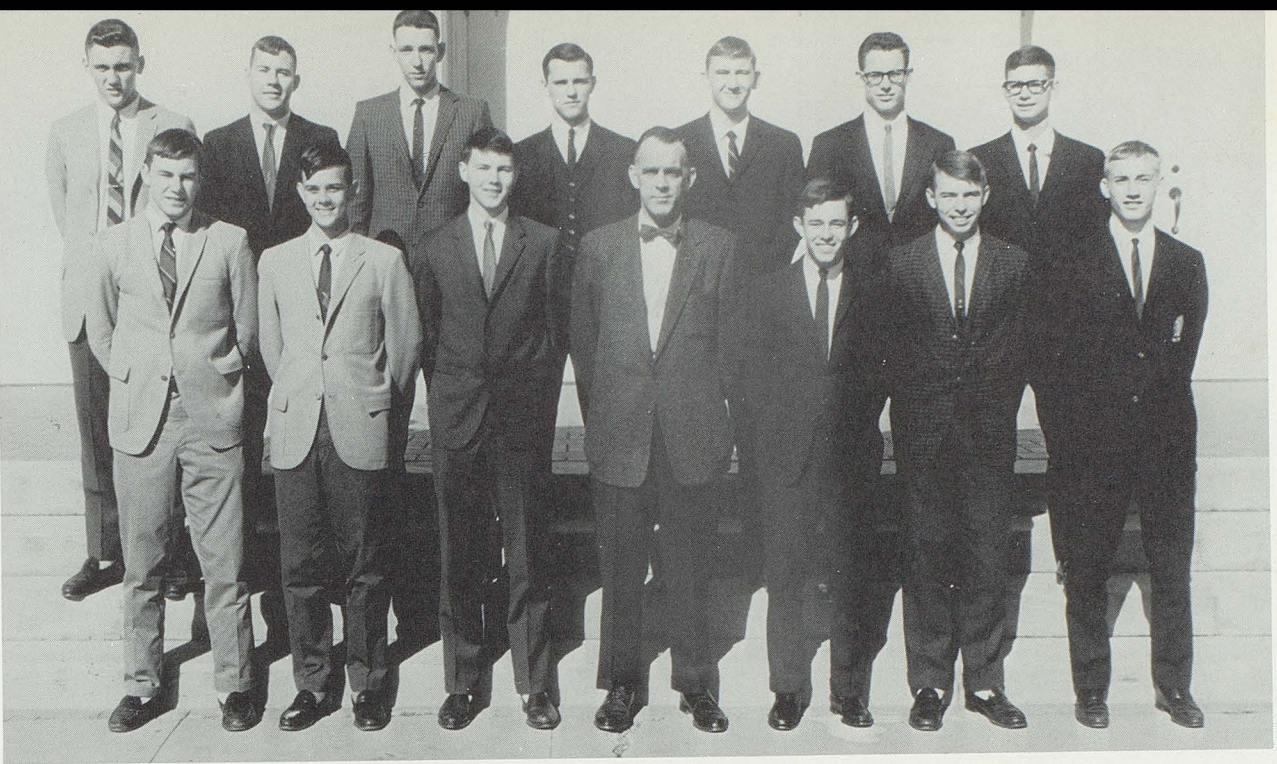

The Fair Park Key Club, which is composed of forty members and seven sponsors, is a community and school service organization. The West Shreveport Kiwanis club sponsors the group, and Mr. Bernard Slimmer is the faculty advisor. Members are chosen on a basis of academic ability and popularity.

The club motto, "Inspire Individual Initiative," is carried out in the activity program. Activities for this year have included a car-smash, providing a band on Beat Byrd Day, participating in the March of Dimes, and assisting in a clean-up campaign.

"Z" Club

The full meaning of the motto, "Growth through Service," is learned by "Z" club members. This service organization for 40 Fair Park girls provides opportunities to help others in the school, as well as in the community. Their service promotes development of character and prepares future productive citizens. The members are chosen on the basis of strong character, willingness to serve others, and the ability to maintain a scholastic B average.

"Z" Club activities include: hospital talent shows, visits to homes for the aged, help for the city clean-up campaign, and Thanksgiving baskets for the needy.

Growth Through Service

The Christmas party provides an opportunity to become friends with children and help them solve special problems.

"Z" Club members enjoy refreshments during a talent show rehearsal.

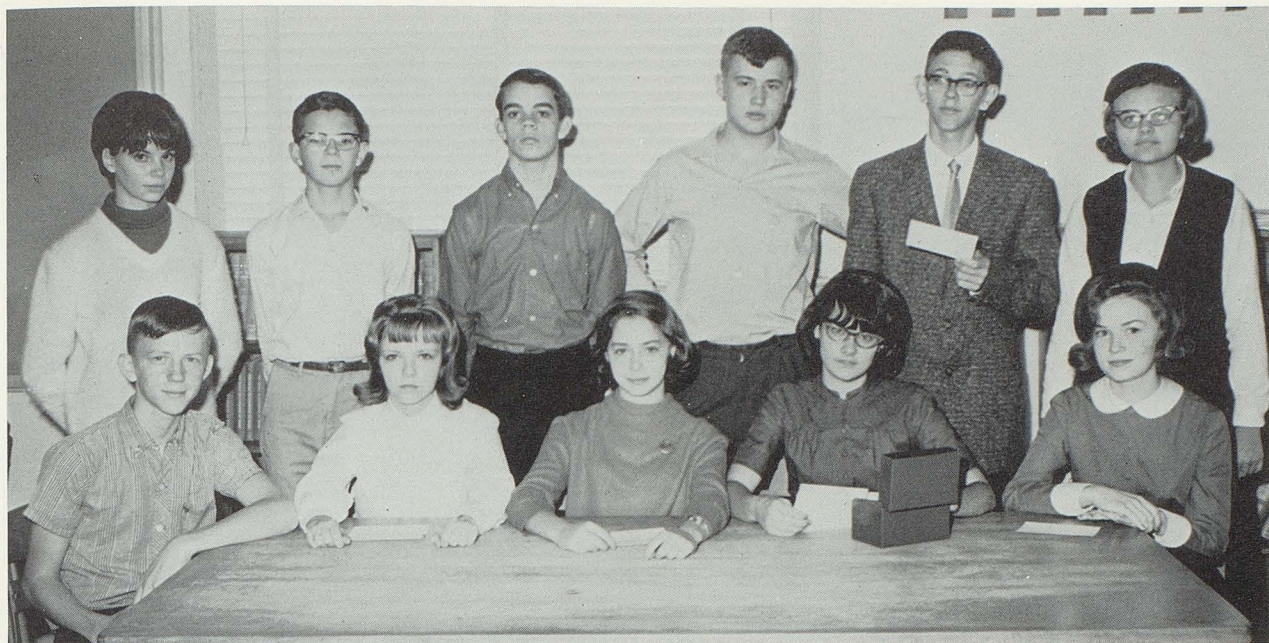

The Art Club holds monthly meetings for all interested students. The work of a famous artist is featured at each meeting, and the students display their work done in the style of the painter under discussion. Both new talent and the old masters are emphasized. Local artists are often invited to the meetings to demonstrate their skills. The Art Club members display their sketches and paintings to the student body several times a year.

OFFICERS: Marilyn Brewster, President; Marla Roper, Vice President; Loretta Mathis, Secretary-Treasurer; Jimmy Duvall, Reporter; Mrs. Grace Gray, Sponsor.

Debate Squad Wins Top Awards

Students participating in Debate as an elective course attend six tournaments each year, debating some thirty-five times in tournament competition.

Senior debators Norman Courtney, Barbara Brantly, Dianne Harper, Ellen Smith and Sharon Ratcliff rated superior in Debate. Sharon Ratcliff also received top ratings in interpretation and oratory.

Junior and Sophomore debators also have made outstanding records with Ted Ferguson and Diana Bloxom rated superior in interpretation and Robert Lasiter and Amanda Davis in Debate.

OFFICERS: Mr. Cloud, Sponsor; Barbara Brantly, President; Robert Lasiter, Vice President; Ellen Smith, Secretary; Norman Courtney, Treasurer; Sharon Ratcliff, Reporter.

Eating the way the Romans did, other examples of Roman costumes are worn by four lovely members.

Latin Club Active in State Organization

This year was the biggest and most important in the history of Fair Park's Latin Club. The club brought back the state presidency from the convention and with it the highest position of responsibility in the Louisiana Junior Classical League. Another honor brought home to Fair Park was the election of Bobbie Kennedy as state editor for the Latin Club newspaper, "Nuntius Latinus."

At the monthly meetings, various and interesting programs are presented. Style shows, plays, and slides of Europe have been among some of the topics presented.

The Saturnalia banquet, presented each year, is carried out in the true Roman style. Members wear colorful and authentic costumes and dine in the fashion of the ancient Romans.

Heading the club in its activities is Mrs. Ruth Johns.

The language of the past and the basis for the English language, Latin, is a popular elective at Fair Park. Mrs. Ruth Johns and her third year Latin class discuss a translation from Cicero, a noted orator of Rome.

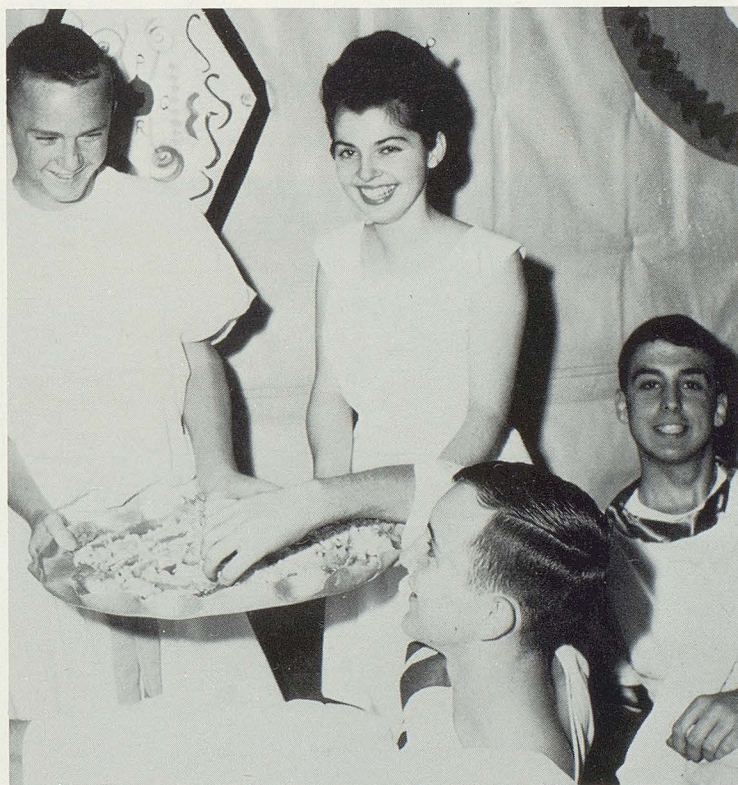

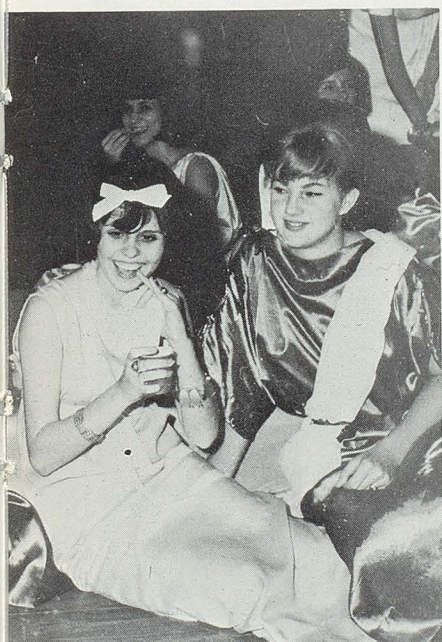

In charge of the entertainment, Jeannie Smith awaits the slave's service.

Roman Banquet Highlights the Year

Acting as the slaves for the banquet were first year Latin Club members. First year consul Johnny Williams and vice president Norman Courtney select from the menu.

OFFICERS: Daniel Brown, President; Gloria Kickel, Vice President; Sherry Terry, Secretary; Mary Celia Boggs, Treasurer; Judy Tomlinson, Program Chairman; Ann Benbow, Program Chairman; Mrs. James Chandler, Sponsor.

"Le Cercle Francais" invites into membership those students who are studying or have studied French. The group increases one's understanding of France through the language itself. Monthly meetings of approximately fifty members study the French Revolution, famous figures in French history and the customs of the people. As a climax to the year, French week is held each spring to acquaint other students with France.

Members are provided an excellent opportunity to learn more about the customs and culture of Spanish-speaking people through the Spanish Club. Meetings are partially conducted in Spanish. An annual event is a gala dinner at a local Spanish restaurant. For Christmas the members learn carols in Spanish and prepare a complete Christmas for a family. During Spanish week the entire student body has a glimpse of the Spanish world.

OFFICERS: Carter Cummins, President; Kathy McInnis, Vice President; Karen Buchanan, Secretary; Robert Edwards, Treasurer; Gloria Meagher, Social Chairman; Mrs. Thelda Baker, Sponsor.

OFFICERS: David Middlebrooks, President; Kathy Tomlinson, Vice President; Donna Jolly, Secretary-Treasurer; Margaret Ruttle, Reporter; Miss Sheffield, Sponsor.

A chance to explore fields of science and develop interests in individual science projects are two important purposes of the Science Club. Under the co-sponsorship of Miss Judy Sheffield and Mr. Kenneth Howard, activities are offered to the interested members. Guest speakers have included a Centenary student who gave an encouraging talk on the growing interest in science, and Mr. Joe Leslie, Lake Custodian, who inspired the club's long-range project of surveying the fish in Cross Lake. The active members must maintain a "C" average and attend the meetings regularly.

Biologists Explore the Living World

First Row: Linda Mabry, Judy Bandaries, Bobbie Kihneman, Jackie Snith, Judy Holmes, Elizabeth Huckabee, Glenda Gooch, Audrey Brown, Carole Pogue, Linda Watkins. Second Row: Sharon Roberts, Martha Huckabee, Beverly Bryant, Linda Tyler, Lynn Mabry, Peggy Lloyd, Carol Nichols, Coy Swett, Cathy Wallace, Pam Stacks. Third Row: Lal Roach, Glenn Tyler, Don Morizot, Marshall Stewart, Lane Lindsay, Bruce Hill, Rodger Johnson, Don Kincaid, Jerry Hudson, Mike Doolittle, Joyce Thompson, Frank J. Physics Clubbers Gain Understanding

The aim of the Physics Club is to improve understanding of the procedure of science and increase knowledge in physics. The group is given demonstrations not possible during class time. One such demonstration was of a laser-ray given by the Bell Telephone Company. This year the club has taken a field trip to the Sun Ray-Dx recycling plant in Benton, Louisiana.

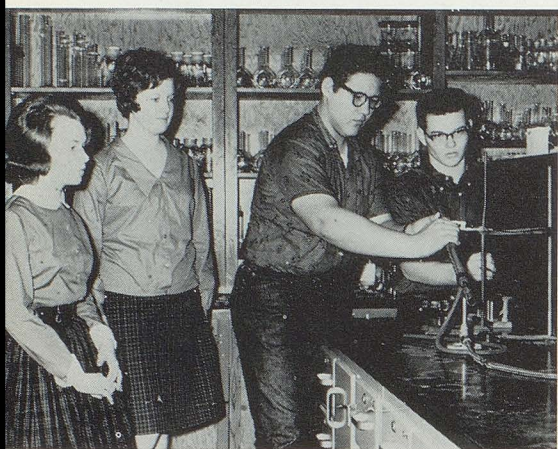

Tricia McGaha and Butch Troegel balance the scales as they explore the physical sciences at a club meeting.

OFFICERS: J. B. Harville, Sponsor; Gerald Reisinger, Sponsor; David Middlebrooks, President; Tommy Gibbons, Vice President; Billy Ivey, Secretary-Treasurer.

Chemistry Club Increases Membership

Members of the chemistry club set up an experiment.

The main objective of the Chemistry Club is to afford an opportunity for extra education for scientific-minded students. Through working in the lab and listening to lectures, they gain knowledge which would not be available in the classroom. Field trips to factories and processing plants, lectures from men working in the chemistry field, and films further stimulate interest.

This year the club has grown to a membership of more than one hundred, making this year's club the largest in the history of Fair Park. Monthly meetings are held under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Guess and Mr. Sidney Bunch.

Students Assist Classmates and Teachers

Visual aids are a very important part of education. The films presented provide a helpful aid to the teacher, as well as the students.

Fifteen Fair Park students devote their study halls to helping Mrs. Mason with the visual aids department. At the end of the year these students are given a banquet at which various awards are presented. Students assisting for their first year receive a citation, second year students receive a pin, and third year students receive a guard for the pin presented to them the previous year.

If it's a book you need ask a library assistant. There are twenty-three students who give up their study halls to work in the library. They are always there when needed, checking books in and out, finding reference materials or helping find a book. An assistant checks students into the library. Besides helping the students, library assistants also help the staff by shelving books, filing cards, setting up displays, and assisting in taking inventory.

First Row: Sue Leach, Lorraine McCoy, Sharon Neely, Billy Standard, Judy McKinney, Glenda Gooch, Janet Reynolds, Sandra Dancy.

Student Workers Aid School

Linda Cooksey and Sandra King check schedules.

When a student walks into the office, he may be doubtful about what to do. In this case, an office worker is ready to aid him. The students who work in the office, volunteer to work during their study halls without receiving academic credit. They do such tasks as answering the telephone, running errands, and locating students.

The school store is available to all students who wish to purchase school supplies. Fair Park stickers and license plates are also sold. Members of the Arrowettes are in charge of the store during their study halls. It is sponsored by Mr. Nutt.

D. E. Students in Business World

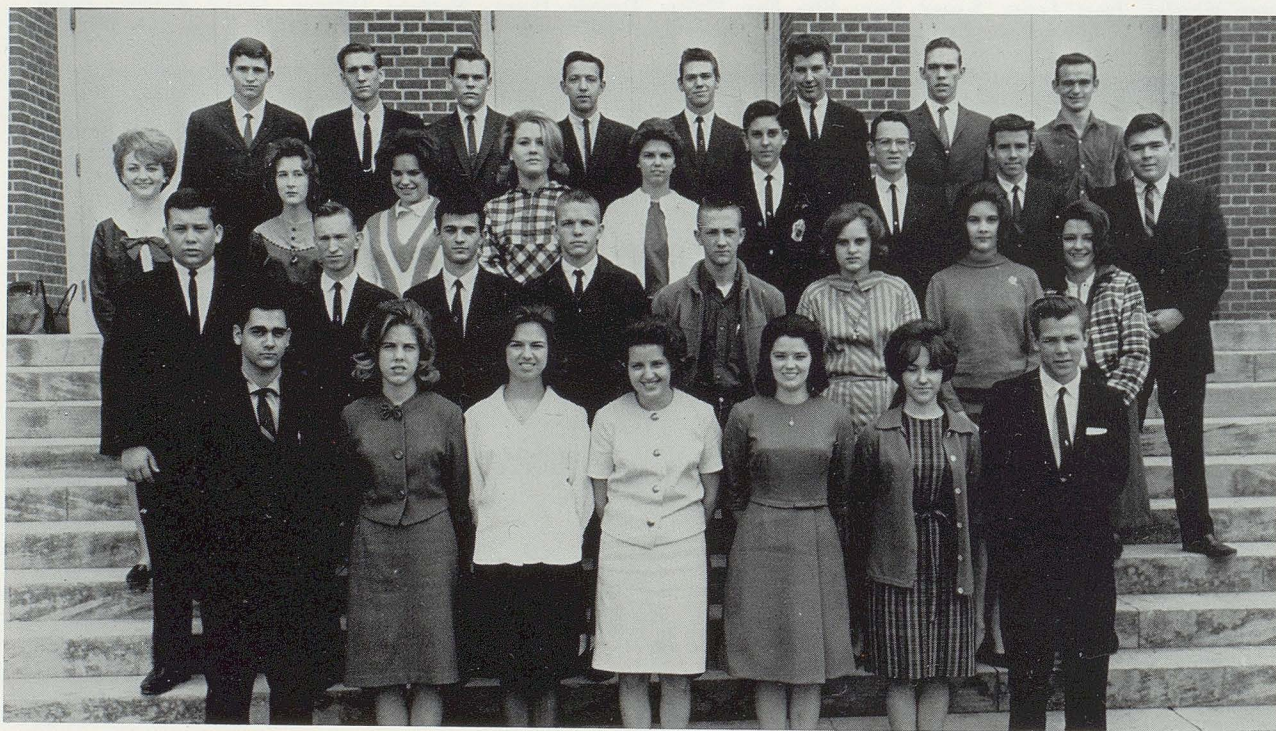

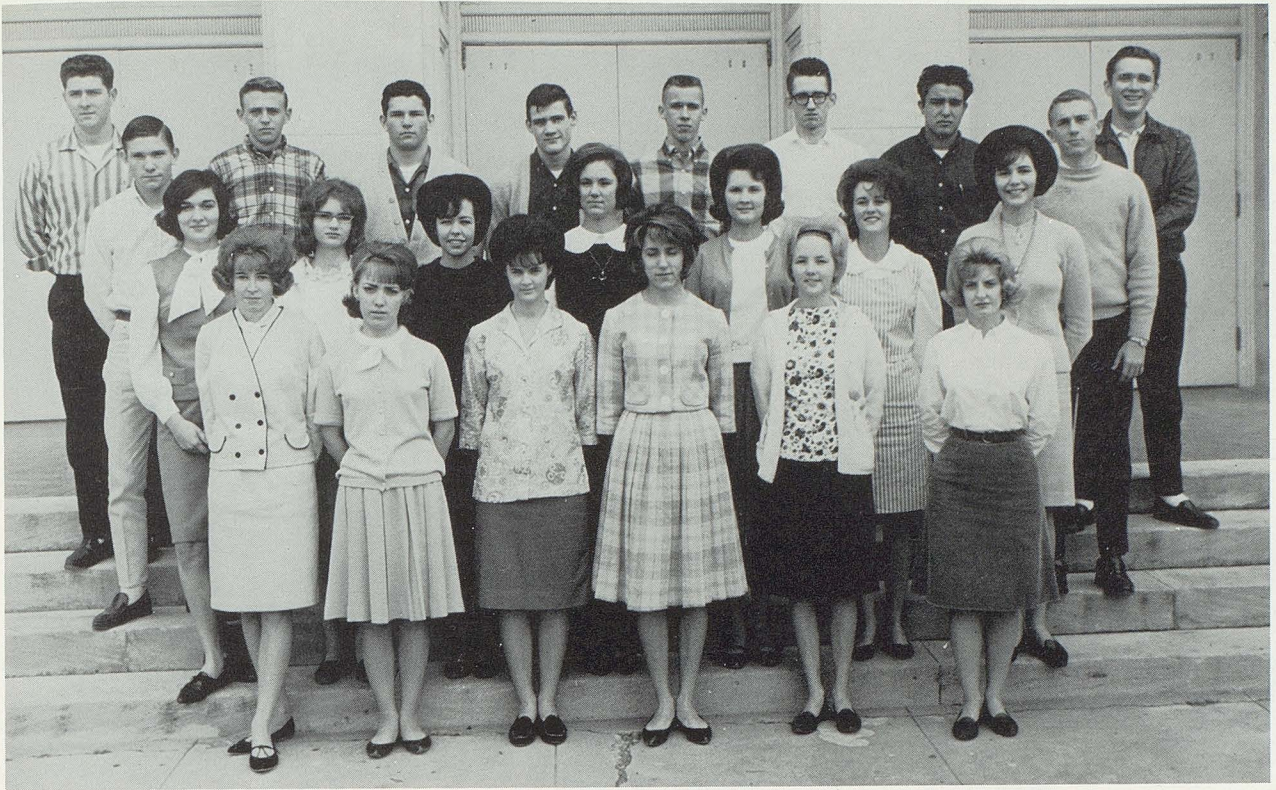

The Distributive Education Club is affiliated with a state and national organization. The club is designed to develop future employees for marketing and distribution. Group and individual projects, and films related to specific topics studied in class are an integral part of the program. Local business leaders give advice to the club on careers and job opportunities. Field trips are taken for a better understanding of business operations.

Selected D.E. students attend a state leadership conference in the spring. An annual project is the spring banquet honoring employers and business leaders who have worked closely with the club.

FHA Members Prepare for the Future

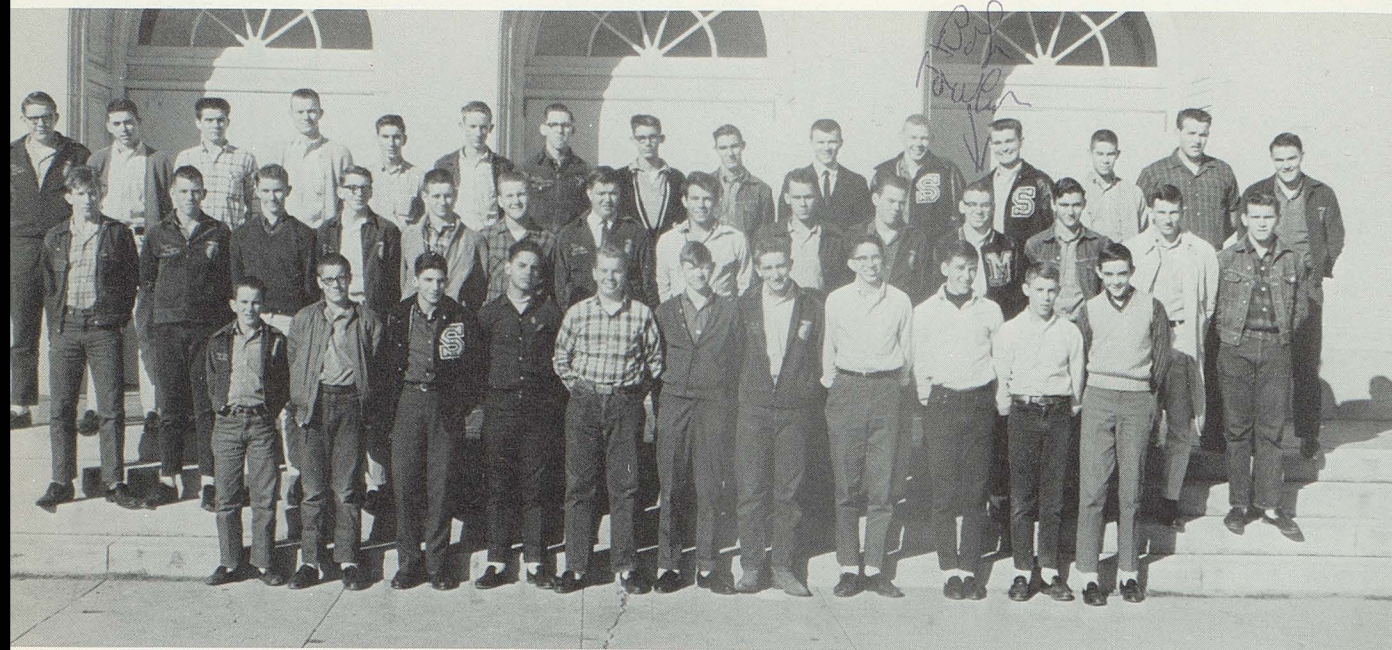

The future homes of America are in the hands of its youth. Through the Future Homemakers of America, girls learn to live better today so that their lives and those of their families will be better tomorrow.

Members of the club often hear guest speakers at the meetings. Careers in Home Economics are stressed, and members attend three conventions a year: State, Parish, and District.

The Fair Park chapter is proud to have four girls as Parish officers. They are: Joy Graves, President; Mickey Whitney, Reporter; Sue Higginbotham, Historian; Jane Mahlan, Parliamentarian.

Future Farmers Learn New Trends

Many former standards for success in the farming industry no longer hold true in the highly specialized work-world of today. The F.F.A. was organized for the students who recognize the need for trained and experienced farmers. The club's purpose is to acquaint members with the best farming methods of the day. Some of the activities undertaken by the club include: study of soil conservation, lectures by local farmers, and work in livestock judging.

OFFICERS: Mike Dennington, President; Donnie Juneau, Vice President; Lonnie Anglin, Secretary; Gene Nix, Treasurer; Randell Jennings, Parliamentarian; Eddie Kent, Reporter; John Mulloy, Sponsor.

Herbie Jeane displays ribbons won in 4-H activities.

4-H Club Competes for Honors

Meetings are held once a month by the Fair Park 4-H members to discuss recent achievements and to be advised on home and farm living. Each member works on individual projects and is given assistance from the parish agents and local sponsor, Mr. John Mulloy. Students compete for honors on parish, state, and national levels. The Fair Park group works in the Parish Achievement Day and assists at the state fair.

Future Teachers Learn by Doing

The Future Teachers of America, a school service organization, aids the teachers of Fair Park in many ways. Members are available during their study halls to grade papers, type stencils, and ditto teaching materials. The group has also taken responsibility for keeping the school workroom in order. This year the members gave help during the convention of the Louisiana Teachers Association.

Students must be recommended for membership and must maintain a C average. Service points are earned through their various activities. Through their work, students gain knowledge of all educational fields and gain experience that will be valuable to them in future years.

OFFICERS: Kathy Weferling, President; Marianne Jordan, Vice President; Linda Moore, Secretary; Carolyn Williams, Treasurer; Judy Brooks, Historian; Mrs. Franz, Sponsor.

In its first year of operation at Fair Park, the Future Business Leaders of America has already developed into an active organization of thirty-five members.

The Fair Park branch is one club in a nation-wide chain dedicated to the goal of educating America's youth in the opportunities of the business world. Each club submits a yearly project to the national headquarters in order to keep its charter. Fair Park has chosen as its project to acquaint local youth with the business establishments of the area.

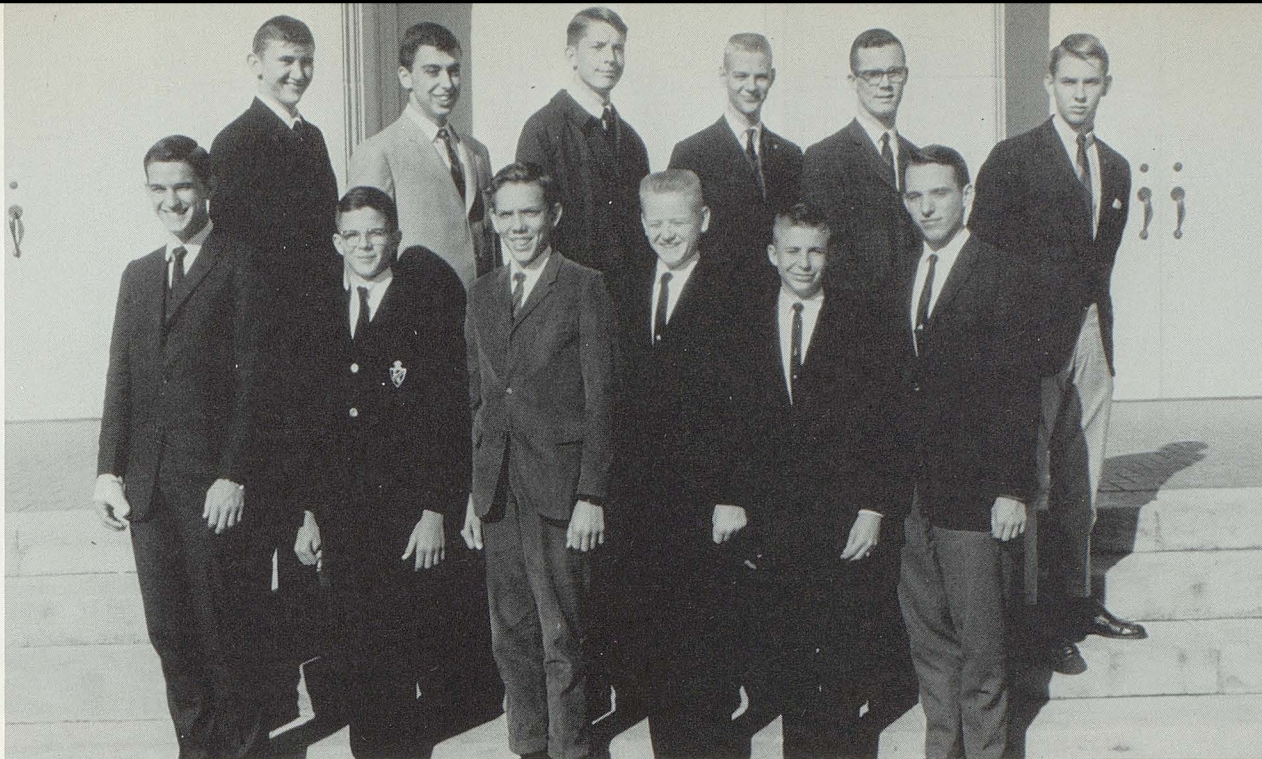

Medical League Trains and Teaches

The Junior Medical League, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to the Shreveport Medical Society, lends its services to the Willis Knighton Hospital one day a week. The girls belonging to the organization work at the hospital after school for three hours doing various jobs. Meetings are held on the first Tuesday of each month. Guest speakers are invited to talk on subjects varying from dietetics to vocational rehabilitation. Because of this group members can learn about the medical profession as they serve it.

OFFICERS: Mrs. J. A. Howell, Sponsor; Mary Hill, Treasurer; Marilyn Moore, Vice President; Regina Matthews, President; Lorrie Miller, Secretary; Mrs. Robert Bays, Sponsor.

Medical Assistants Gain Experience

The Student Medical Association was organized to help boys interested in medicine decide what branch of medicine they would like to pursue. The boys give volunteer help in hospitals and observe the staffs at work. Each member becomes acquainted with the routines and services of various units within the hospital such as the wards, emergency room, pharmacy, and dental clinic.

Fair Park's S.M.A. meets twice a month. Films or guest speakers compose the major part of the meetings. The sponsor for the group from the Shreveport Medical Society is Dr. Bullock. Mr. L. P. Paul is the faculty advisor.

Coin Clubbers Compare Collections

The Coin Club, sponsored by Mr. Gerald Reisinger, meets each month to discuss trends in coins. The members review the newspaper and display their collections. Coins are bought, sold, and exchanged for individual collections. A group project is to complete a map with foreign coins.

Editors, Reporters Publish Pow Wow

Fourteen editors, assisted by a reporting staff of twenty-two journalism students, publish the school paper on a bi-weekly basis. With the help of its new sponsor, Mrs. Lucretia Graham, the staff has covered all events concerning Fair Park and its students. For being an outstanding paper, the Pow Wow received the National Scholastic Press Association Award and an award from the Louisiana Scholastic Press.

Journalism students gain experience and apply their knowledge by reporting, writing stories, and working at the printing shop. Those interested may try for positions as editors for the following years.

Ad Sales Help Finance Sequoyah

The Sequoyah Ad Staff consists of junior and senior girls who sell advertisements for the yearbook. Through the combined efforts of the staff and their sponsor, Mrs. Pearl Dalton, the student body is able to buy Sequoyahs at a reduced price. To gain membership in the organization, a girl must be recommended by a teacher and must maintain a B average. She must be personable and able to deal easily with the public. The Ad Staff helps to provide the school with an outstanding yearbook.

Circulation Staff Vital Part of Yearbook

The Sequoyah Circulation staff is an organization which deals with the job of selling yearbooks and collecting money from the sales. Most of the work is done at the beginning of the year under the direction of Mrs. Norma Jean Brown. Work is continued through the year in preparation for the delivery of the Sequoyahs.

Sales are promoted in a variety of ways. Members advertise all yearbook sales by making posters and announcements. They collect money from all sales and keep all records for financing the yearbook.

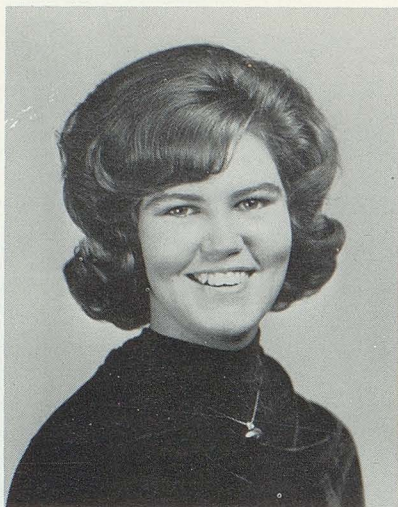

To acquire membership on the staff, a girl must be highly trustworthy and honest. She must maintain a B average and be recommended by a teacher. The circulation staff plays a vital part in the producing of the yearbook.

Honorary Group Sells Football Programs

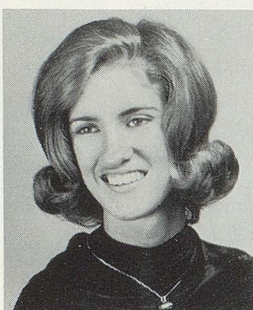

Football Program Ad Staff is an honor bestowed upon a group of girls at the end of their junior year by members of the preceding staff. In the summer, the busiest time of the year for the staff, the girls diligently sell their assigned ads. After the ads are sold, they are matted and a program is assembled. The girls' jobs continue as they sell the programs at each home game. The program serves as an aid to the spectators by identifying players, coaches, cheerleaders, and other officials. The experience gained while selling the ads and the programs is valuable as a step toward making each girl a more poised, capable leader.

Creative Writing Develops Self-Expression

OFFICERS: Don Morizot, Treasurer; Linda Gann, Vice President; Johnette Johnston, Secretary; Sharon Ratcliff, President; Jean Proctor and Dot Raney, Scrapbook Chairmen; Jennie Jones, Sponsor.

The chief aim of the creative writing club is to teach self-expression and offer an outlet for talent. Meetings are held every two weeks under the supervision of Mrs. Jennie Jones and provide a program based on some phase of writing creatively. The members discuss literary forms and the best ways of presenting ideas. Individual contributions are made, and fellow members offer constructive criticisms. Time is taken to enjoy writing selections and practice what has been learned.

Quill and Scroll Honors Staffs

Students displaying journalistic skill through work on one of the school's publications are honored by induction into the National Quill and Scroll Society. It is the highest honor Fair Park bestows on a student for journalistic achievement.

Juniors and seniors who have maintained at least a "B" average are eligible. A recommendation by the committee governing publications at Fair Park and an approval by the principal and secretary-treasurer of the Quill and Scroll are necessary.

Induction ceremonies into the E. H. Herron Chapter of Quill and Scroll are held in the 'spring. The local chapter has existed since 1959.

Fair Park is one of the few schools in the state to maintain an orchestra. It is an active organization which provides a high level of culture and entertainment for the school. Each year the orchestra goes on tour with the band. Combined with the band it presents an annual Christmas Concert. The orchestra enters the music festival sponsored by the Music Forum of Shreveport. It also competes in district and state festivals. This year the orchestra has played for the State Convention of the Louisiana Music Teachers and American String Teachers Association.

The instrumental music department under the direction of Mr. Walter Minnearn offers the Fair Park student an opportunity to develop and train his talent. From Fair Park Orchestra students have entered the Shreveport Symphony and musical careers.

Mr. Minnearn directs the orchestra in a rehearsal session.

Through many hours of practice in marching and playing, the band attained its best year yet. A fast-moving ensemble of trumpets drew hearty applause from students with Trumpets Ole' at the Christmas concert. The band was always available to entertain at pep rallies and school assemblies. It provided lively and colorful marching performances during football season. The band took its annual tour financed by the selling of candy and membership tickets.

The band emphasizes musical accomplishments as well as colorful performance. It is under the capable direction of Mr. Walter Minniear, who was named the State Band Director of the year.

This year the Fair Park Band was chosen to represent Louisiana at the Four-State Bandmaster's Convention in Texarkana.

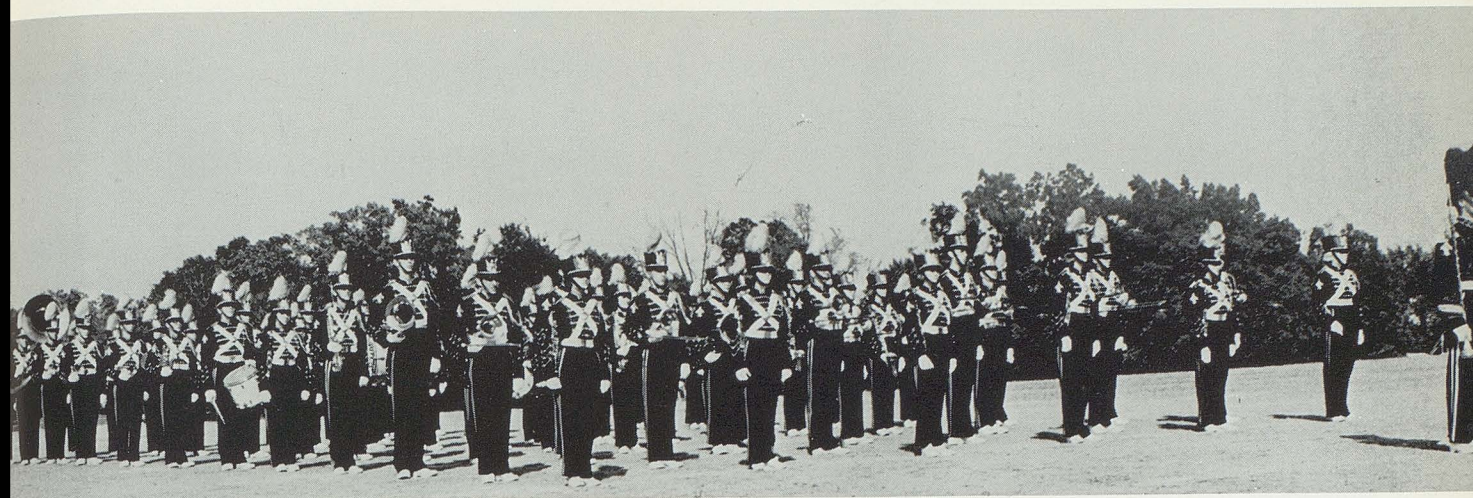

Susan Cook, an outstanding performer and band officer, was named to All-State Band.

Choirs Perform Frequently

The choir gives two public performances each year under the direction of Mr. Melvin Riche. It joins the band and orchestra to present a Christmas concert. The Spring concert is the highlight of the year. The choir also performs for civic organizations such as the Lions Club, Rotary Club, and Kiwanis Club.

The "A" Choir, consisting of seventy-five members, and the "B" choir meet five days a week. They are open to anyone interested in vocal music. The Girls' Glee Club offers part-time training and gives one-half credit toward graduation.

From the 1964-65 Fair Park choir, five all-state members were chosen by the choir vocal division at Northwestern State College.

SPORTS

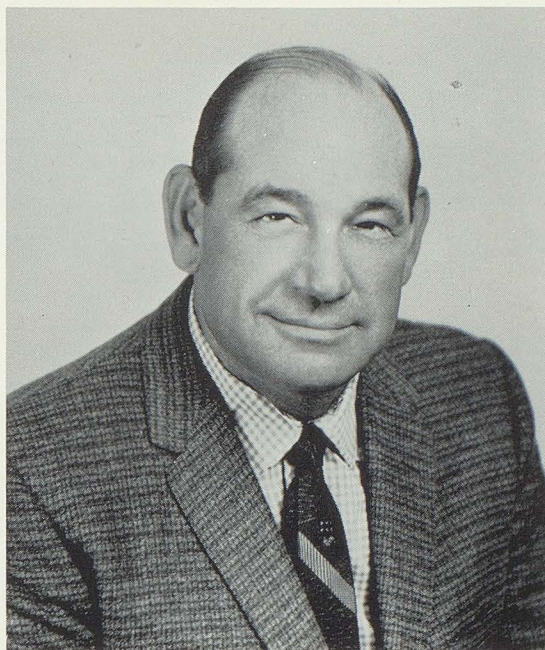

. . . The tension of a close game, the enthusiasm of the students, the effort of a team to do its best—all make sports worthwhile. To those who accept the challenge of competitive sports come the rewards of accomplishment and sportsmanship.

The Fair Park varsity football team completed its first winning season since 1960 in fine style by defeating seven of the ten games on its tough schedule. In spite of a slow start against Neville and Woodlawn, the tribe went on to win six consecutive games before losing the season's finale to Byrd. One highlight of the season was the Indians' 35-7 win over Bastrop to produce the school's first homecoming game victory.

After their 27-7 win over highly-rated Bossier, the Indians climbed into the State Top Ten ratings of the AAA teams. The reservation offensive attack was really moving at this point, as the tribesmen had become the highest point-per-game scoring team in North Louisiana. The total for the season showed that Indians outscored their opponents 215-126.

Fair Park 33 - Airline 6

The Fair Park Indians went on the warpath and massacred the Airline Vikings in the 1964 football debut. It was the first pigskin contest ever played by the new school. The Indians gave up one score before roaring back to overwhelm the Norsemen, scoring 14 points in the second period and 20 more in the final quarter.

Tom Shea, substituting for injured quarterback Tommy Roberts, engineered the offensive unit, which became one of the best balanced in recent Fair Park history. Leading in scoring for the Indians were Steve Jones and Butch Troegel with two touchdowns apiece.

Fair Park 6 - Woodlawn 19

In a game which was not decided until the final quarter, Fair Park battled the Knights of Woodlawn before finally going down by a score of nineteen to six. Fair Park's only touchdown came on an electrifying 81 yard run. This proved to be the Indians' only score however, as a tough Knight defense kept them at bay the rest of the night.

Tribesmen Berney Walker, Steve Lindsey, and Steve Tilley combine to stop a Woodlawn ball carrier for short gain.

Fair Park 14 - Neville 29

Even though they came back to score two touchdowns in the second half, the Indians of Fair Park couldn't overcome a 19-0 intermission deficit as they bowed to the Tigers in their second district battle of the year.

The Tribesmen made a real battle of it as they scored on a ten-yard Troegel-to-Smith pass early in the third quarter. Depth told the story for the Tigers as they scored twice in the second half by way of a pass and a punt return.

Fair Park 33 - North Caddo 14

In spoiling the Rebels' homecoming plans, the Indians brought their season record to two wins and two defeats by downing North Caddo by a score of 33-14. In a game that featured an offense of nearly 400 yards gained, Tommy Roberts and Sophomore John Miller threw touchdown passes of 41 and 23 yards respectively.

Fair Park 35 - Bastrop 7

The Indians celebrated their homecoming by beating the Lions of Bastrop by a 35 to 7 score.

Junior quarterback Tom Shea threw touchdown passes of nine and 19 yards as he led Fair Park to its first district win of the season. While leading only 7-0 at the half, the Indians roared back in the second stanza to score 28 points to win the game.

Fair Park 26 - Ouchita 6

With passes of 31, 13, 7, and 24 yards, Butch Troegel led the Indians of Fair Park to a 26 to 6 romp over 1-AAA foe Ouchita. Playing in place of injured junior quarterback Tom Shea, Troegel ended the evening with five completions in six attempts for a total of 93 yards.

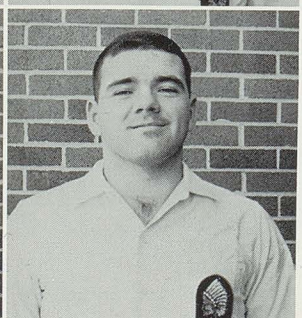

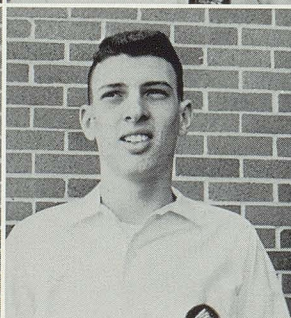

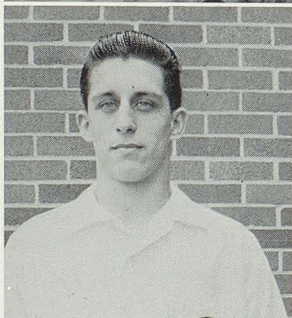

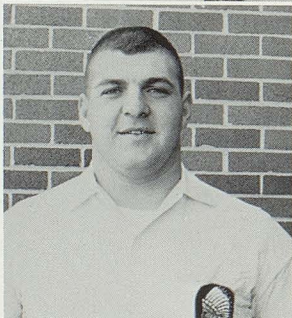

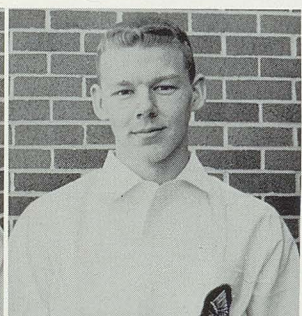

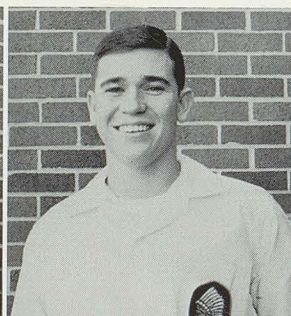

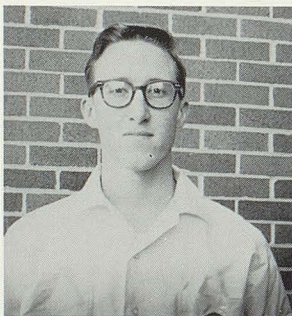

Two of the touchdown passes were caught by V. T. Smith, and one each were caught by Jerry Smith and Tommy Youngblood.

Fair Park 27 - Bossier 7

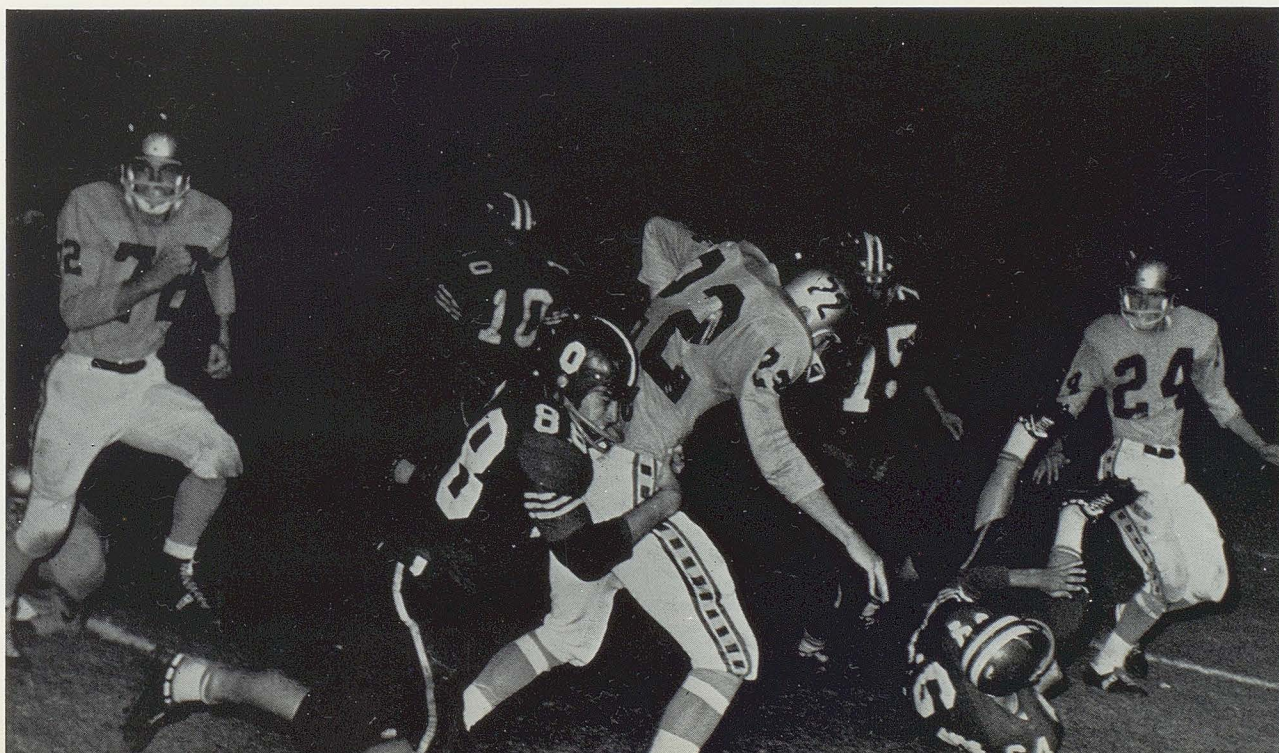

What had been billed as a toss-up contest proved to be a 27 to 7 romp for the Indians over their I-AAA rival, Bossier. Butch Troegel threw touchdown passes of seven and 24 yards and carried 15 yards for another score.

The offense had a total of over 300 yards gained for the evening. Hard-nosed defense was another obvious factor in this, one of the year's best games.

Fair Park 27 - Jesuit 25

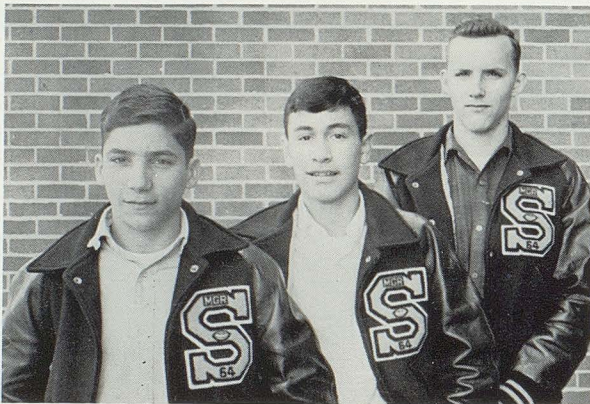

The Indians' depth and balance made the difference in this game as they defeated the Blue Flyers 27 to 25. Tied at the end of the first half, Fair Park dominated the third quarter and part of the fourth, building what appeared to be a comfortable lead of 27 to 13. The scrappy Flyers then came back to generate another scoring drive against a toughening defense and Fair Park's ball control tactics.

Quarterback Butch Troegel loses the ball after being hit on a right end sweep.

Fair Park 14 - West Monroe 0

Stretching their winning streak to six in a row, the Indians downed West Monroe 14 to 0. With an offense much stronger than the two-touchdown effort indicated, Fair Park sported a seven and two won-lost record after this contest. Several Indian miscues in scoring territory kept this from becoming a complete rout.

Fair Park 0 - Byrd 14

The fighting Indians played tough football, but made two costly mistakes. This was the difference in a game which saw the Fair Parkers on the short end of a 14-0 decision to cross-town rival, Byrd.

In the second quarter, with the ball on their own twenty-yard line, the Tribesmen threw a pass which was intercepted and returned for a touchdown. Just before the first half ended, a Jacket halfback broke loose for a 56 yard score.

The two teams battled on even terms for the remainder of the game, with each threatening to score several times.

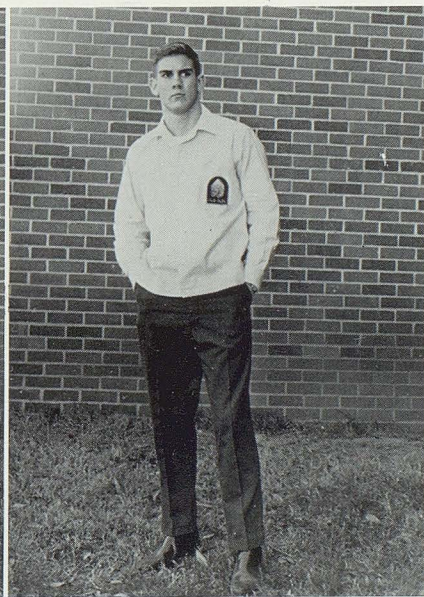

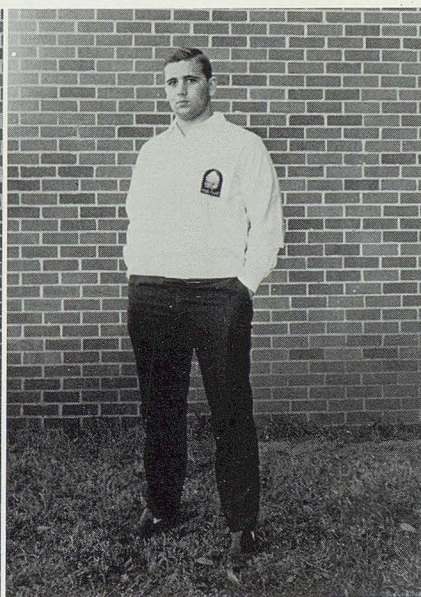

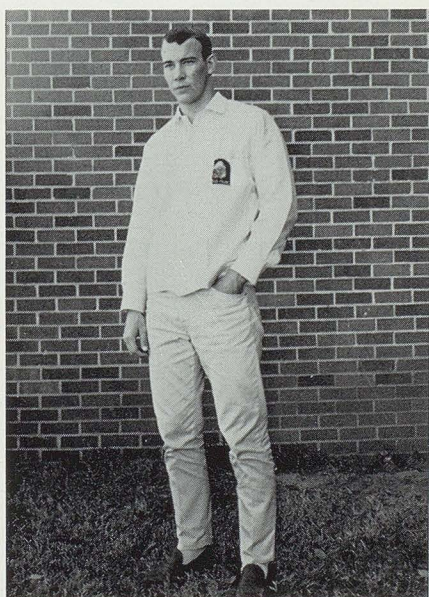

Surrounded by unfriendly opponents, flankerback V. T. Smith hauls in an Indian first down pass in a non-district game against Jesuit.

Left: Tommy Youngblood was selected to All-City, All-District, and All-State teams. Honorable Mention All-American.

Center: Berny Walker was selected to All-City and All-District teams.

Right: V. T. Smith was selected to the All-City team.

Not Pictured: Mike Smith was selected to the All-District team.

Indians Finish With 23-11 Season Record

The Fair Park varsity basketball team displayed great ability and spirit in winning 23 of 34 games on one of the most rugged schedules in its history. One of the 23 wins was a 67-50 victory over District 1-AAA winner Bossier, giving the tribesmen first place in the Indian tournament. In addition to this were 2nd and 3rd place wins in the Woodlawn and Byrd tournaments. A big disappointment of the season was the 44-36 defeat at the hands of Bossier, which ended the Indians home court winning streak at 22 straight games.

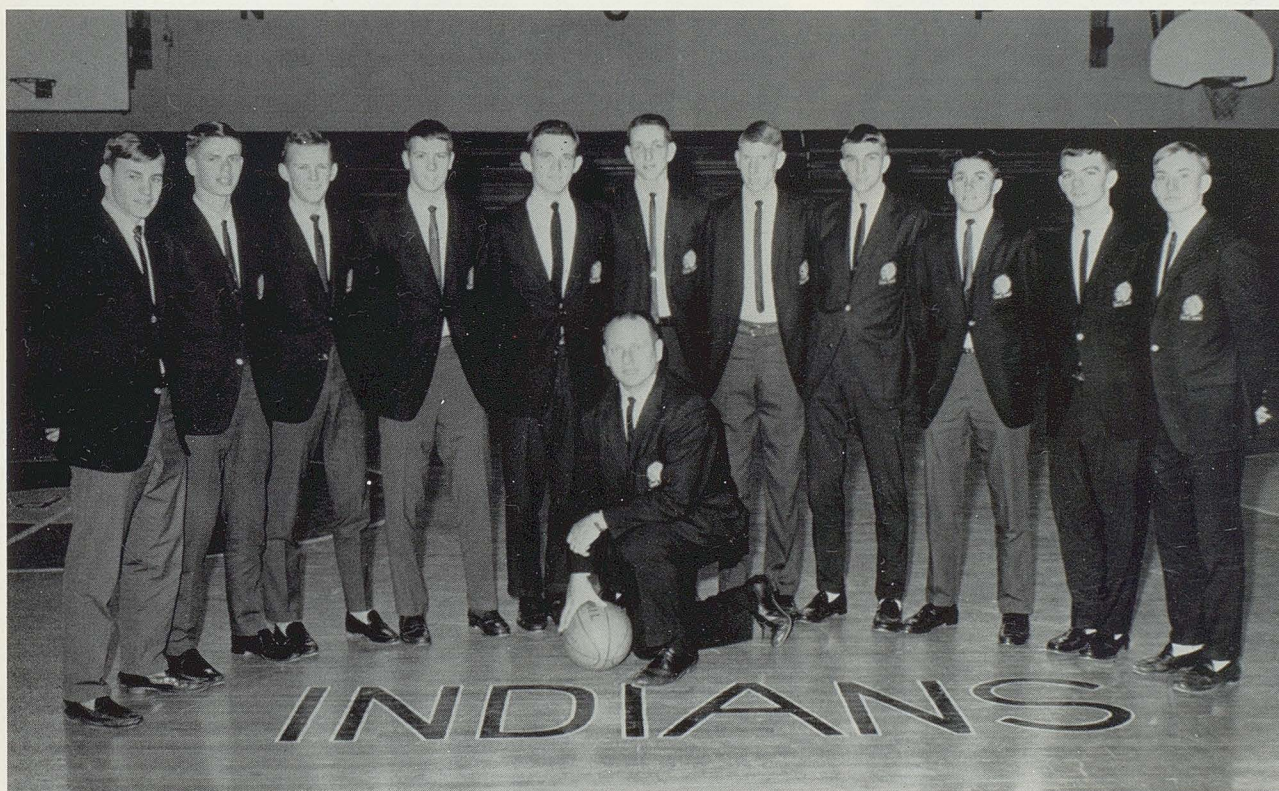

With the 70-61 win over Neville, the Indians completed their District 1-AAA schedule in a tie with Byrd for third place, each having 9-5 records.

Guard Dick Hicks was the tribe's leading scorer with a 15.4 average and also the leading rebounder.

The 1964 Fair Park baseball team climbed to the state playoffs before being defeated in the third semi-final game against Istrouma High of Baton Rouge. That loss, by a 6-5 score was only the tribe's ninth in a forty game series. The final record showed the Indians with twenty-nine wins, nine defeats, and two ties.

The reservation captured the 1-AAA district title and for the second straight year went on to state playoffs. Included in the '64 team were seven All-City players, five All-District players, and two All-State players.

Setting the pace for the tribe's batters were Buddy Nelson with an average of .403, Danny Rembert with a .308 average, and Mike Herron with a .300. The leading pitcher for the Indians was James Rushworth, who won eight of ten games for a .800 win percentage.

Enters State Meet

Displaying excellent depth and ability, the 1964 Fair Park track team won the Bossier Invitational Track Meet and took sixth position honors in the State Championship meet. They placed second or third in all other meets.

Tribesman Tommy Youngblood made a remarkable showing in the javelin throw, having entered the event for the first time near the middle of the season. He developed so quickly that he was able later to make a heave of 186 feet to take first place in the District 1-AAA Meet. Discus man, Rodney Walton, represented Fair Park in the Preptacular meet.

Indians Promote Spirit

Tribe spirits are lifted high while watching the traditional ceremonial war dance performed by the Indians, Fair Park's mascots. Electric enthusiasm is generated by their colorful dances at football games, basketball games, and pep rallies. The Indians are chosen by the cheerleaders and a faculty group during tryouts held in the spring.

The first Indian was chosen in 1957 when the tradition of doing a war dance to "Cherokee" was begun. Since that time two braves have been added to assist the Big Indian. Their duties include aiding the cheerleaders in preparing for pep rallies, participating in cheering routines, and decorating for various athletic activities.

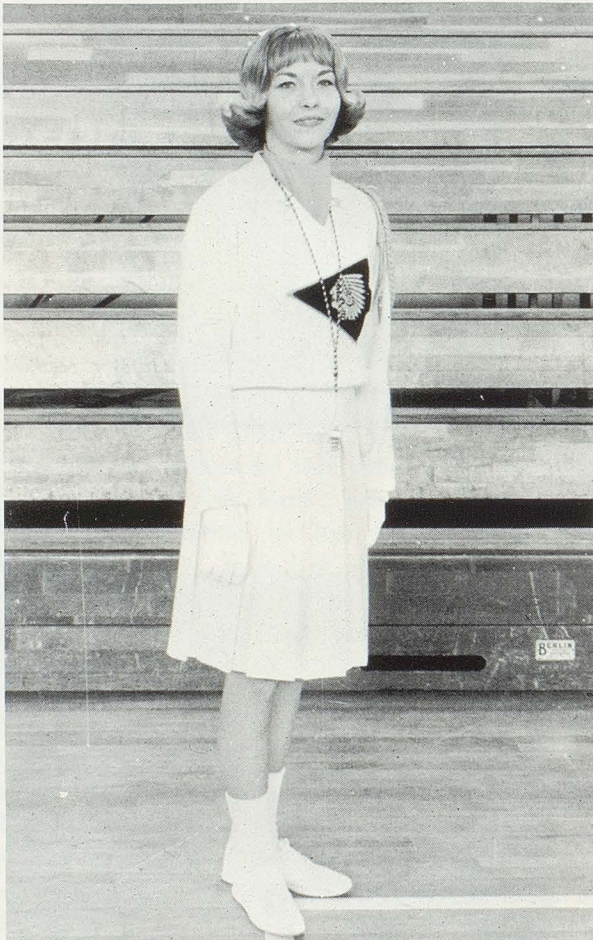

Arrowettes

Arrowettes was the name given to the new pep squad. Sponsored by Miss Ira K. Long and Mrs. Emma Loyce Smelley, the new Arrowettes donned uniforms of the school colors of black, white and gold.

Practice began in the summer in preparation for the school year. At many football games the arrowettes performed precision marching drills. Snappy hand routines added to the excitement of basketball season. In addition to attending games, the pep squad boosted the spirit at pep rallies, sponsored the annual Mardi Gras and marched in the State Fair parade, Veteran's Day parade and the Holiday in Dixie parade.

Membership is limited to girls with a "C" average who have a desire to serve their school.

Crowning Highlights '64 Homecoming

QUEEN LINDA DUNN escorted by MAYOR CLYDE FANT

"Fair Park on the Grow with Shreveport" was the theme of the fourth annual Homecoming presentation. On October 16, 1964, at the State Fair Stadium the Homecoming Court was presented to students and alumni in an impressive ceremony. Serving as a background for the presentation were the Arrowettes, who formed the Skyline of Shreveport. The Dixie Drill Team fired a salute to the royal court. Mayor Clyde E. Fant escorted the Queen.

The height of the ceremony was the crowning of the Queen by Earl A. McKenzie, who also presented a gold football charm to the football sweetheart.

Following the football game a dance was held at the American Legion Club with music by the Travelers. A reception for former graduates was held in the dining room of the American Legion Clubhouse. Both students and alumni agreed that Homecoming '64 was one of the best-planned and most impressive ever presented.

MILITARY

. . . Leadership, discipline, and patriotism come from the R.O.T.C. student's service to the school. He drills; he studies; he obeys; and he commands. With him lies the future of the community and the nation.

Battalion Staff Directs Corps

The battalion staff, directed by Lt. Col. Tome Walters, commands the corps of cadets. Composed of Deputy battalion commander Maj. Mike Barkett, Maj. Paul Walters, Capt. Don Monroe, Capt. Talmage Vance, Capt. Dion Cole, and Capt. Danny Hardy, the staff coordinates all the activities of the battalion. It is responsible for establishing and enforcing the policies of leadership and discipline followed by the corps. Each decision they put into effect under the guidance of M/Sgt. Jones and S/Sgt. Hewitt is for a stronger corps.

Through the years the R.O.T.C. has established a strong tradition and esprit de corps. The leaders of the corps work hard each year to uphold that tradition, for no successful organization can be content to rely on past achievements for present initiative. The hours of planning spent by the members of the staff to make this year the best in history reflect credit not only on the corps but on the school.

Commandant of Cadets, Master Sergeant Verdon Jones is the head of the R.O.T.C. department. Apart from his regular responsibilities, he sponsors the rifle team.

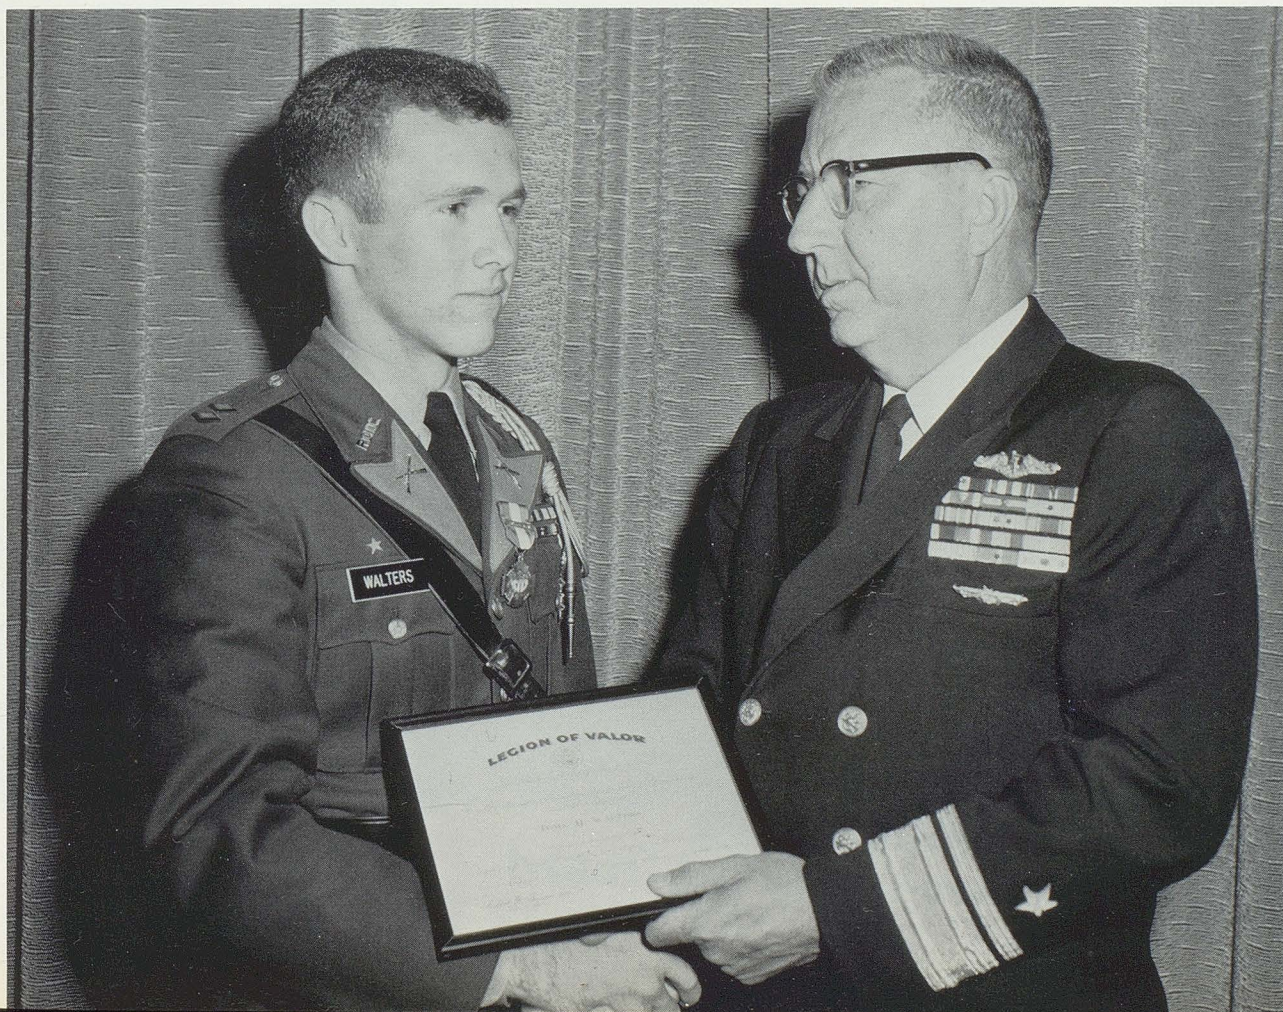

The second instructor to the battalion, Staff Sergeant Hewitt, has a wide variety of duties. Aside from the corps, the Dixie Drill Platoon is his pride and delight.

Major Michael Barkett escorts his sponsor, Connie Martin, through the arch of steel during the presentation of officers at the Military Ball.

Cadet Lt. Col. Tome Walters receives the Legion of Valor award for achievement from Rear Admiral W. T. Griffith. Awarded to the outstanding cadet in the Fourth Army Area, it is the highest honor a cadet can receive. This was the second straight year for a Fair Park cadet to win the award, making our school the first in history to claim successive recipients.

To a great guy, friend, and classmate. Good luck and may
God bless you.

Special Staff Leads Teams

The members of the special staff are the commanders of the competitive teams. These teams, the extracurricular activities of the corps, provide a source of competition with other schools. Guiding them to victory requires a firmness of conviction on the part of the leaders, for they must be able to extract the full potential from their members. The success of each team depends a great deal on their personal leadership.

Each team was highly successful this year. The rifle team, commanded by Maj. Sandy Steiner, won the majority of its matches and fired high scores in all competition. The Drill Team, commanded by Maj. Everett Doubleday, received top ratings in each of its competitions and represented the battalion at many public ceremonies.

Active Rifle Team Fires in Texas Matches

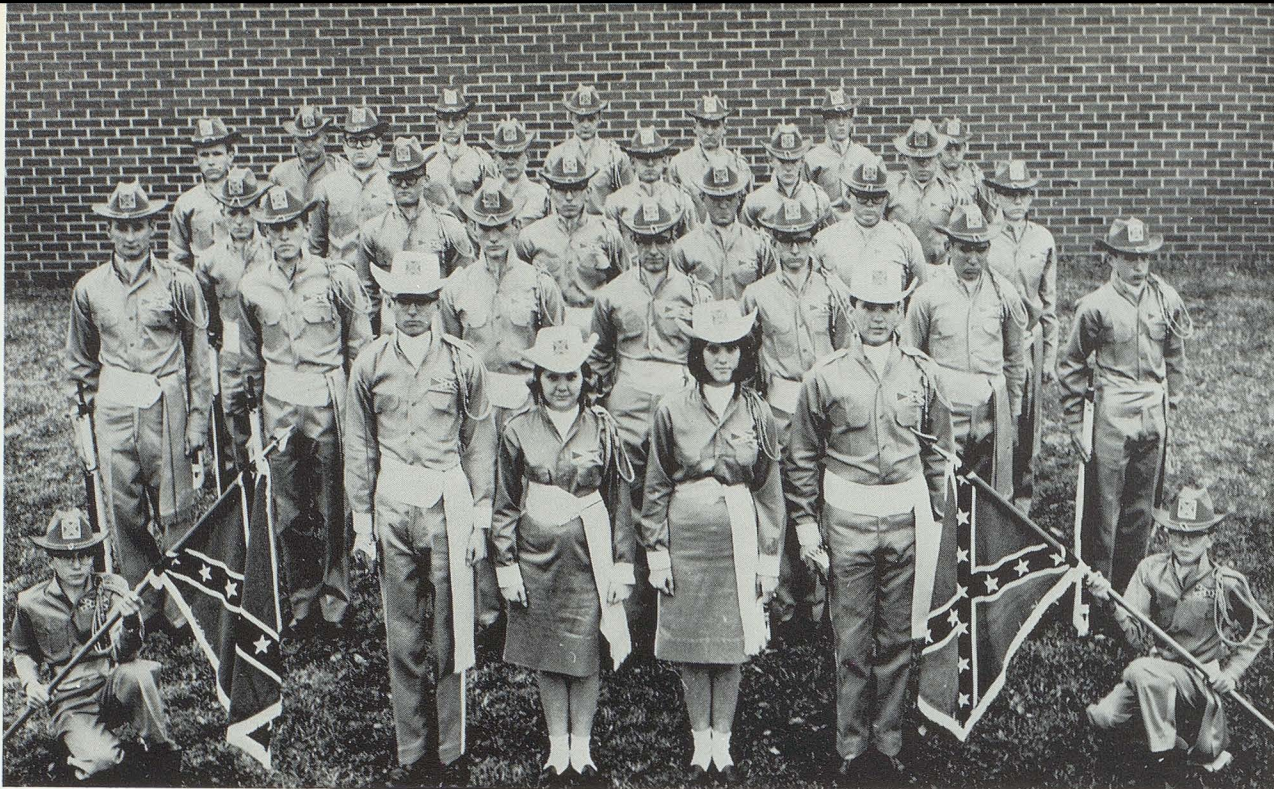

Sponsoring the rifle team, M/Sgt. Jones annually develops winning teams.

A well-traveled group, the Fair Park rifle team, journeyed to many out-of-state cities and towns to compete with others for team and individual scores. Four Texas meets were attended at Center, Orange, Huntsville, and Arlington. They also fired in a national match at Wichita.

Commanded by Sandy Steiner, the group was built around a nucleus of experienced seniors. With an all-around team effort, they had the potential to win every match they entered.

Participating in the city league kept the team busy at home. They fired scheduled matches with the following teams: Byrd, Woodlawn, Barksdale AFB, and the Naval Reserve.

The climax of the season was the Fourth Army competition at Arlington, Texas. Competing against teams from five states, the Fair Park team of 1963 captured the Fourth Army championship. Having won the match before, the team worked the entire year toward the competition. With a strong possibility of capturing the championship again, they also worked for a high national ranking.

First Row: James Kirkland, Maj. Everett Doubleday, commander; Sponsor Maj. Linda Dunn, Sponsor Capt. Lynda Lloyd, Capt. Tom Bruce, deputy commander; David Kirkland. Second Row: Richard Carpenter, Doug Holland, Mike Mormon, Ralph Young, Ronny Reed, Ricky Houston, Jerry Houston. Third Row: Richard Calvert, Donald Patrick, Tommy Craig, Clent Rambin, John Smith, Frank Post. Fourth Row: Tome Walters, Hubert Kerley, Barry Rutherford, Charles Johnson, Dave Sykes, Thomas Hill. Fifth Row: Daniel Gay, Tracy Little, Willie Frantom, David Calvert, Barry Walters, Bill Beebe.

Appearing on national television, the platoon marches through the fair grounds in Dallas as a unit in the Cotton Bowl parade.

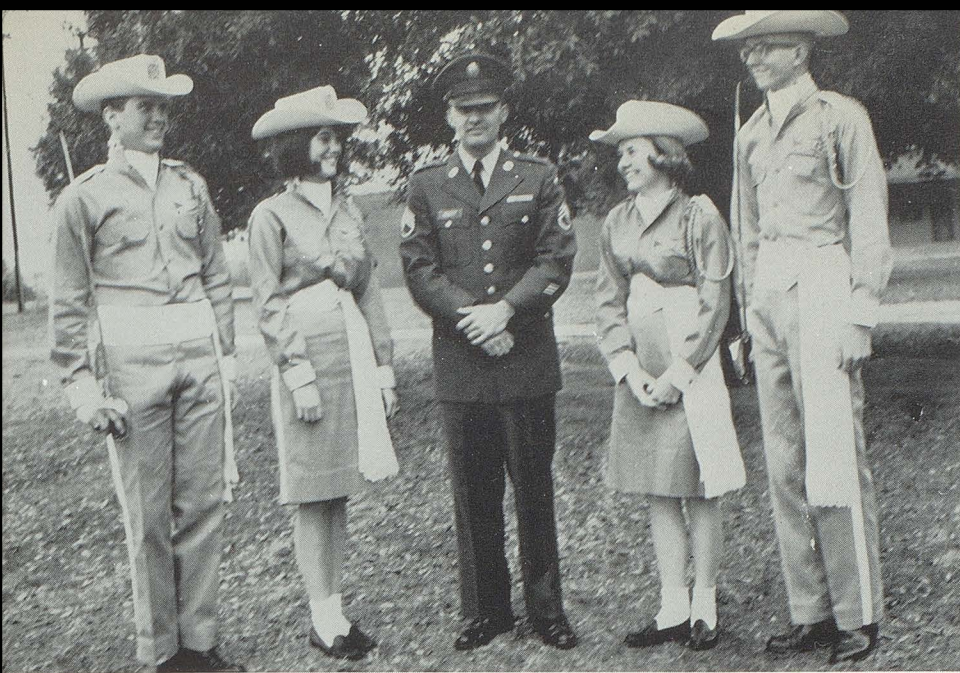

Dixie Drill Marches in Cotton Bowl Parade

Distinguished as the first drill team to be invited to perform, the Dixie Drill Platoon represented Fair Park as it marched in the Cotton Bowl Parade on New Year's Day in Dallas, Texas. After the nationally-televised parade they were guests of the Cotton Bowl Committee at the football game.

The most active drill team ever at Fair Park, they were also invited to perform at local ceremonies in Woodville, Texas. At home they marched at half-time during football games and the Holiday in Dixie Parade.

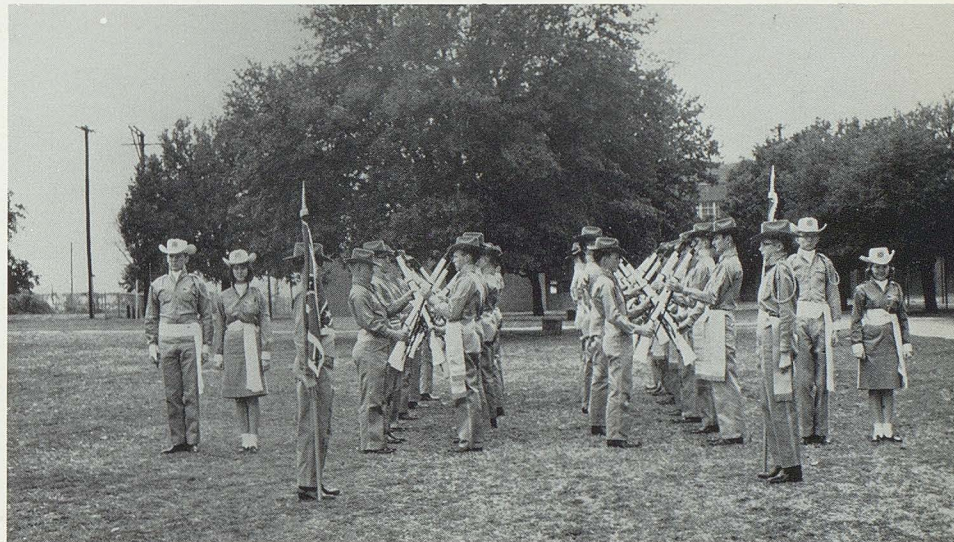

The teams had outstanding showings in competitions. Practicing long hours, they perfected the routines to the height of ability for the judgment of military personnel. City competitions with Byrd and Woodlawn were in preparation for the Fourth Army competition at Arlington, Texas. Consistently rated among the best in five states, the team looked forward to the competition this year.

The command responsibility of the drill platoon belongs to Everett Doubleday, commander, and Tom Bruce, deputy commander. With sponsors Linda Dunn and Lynda Lloyd, they create new movements for performances and arrange the team's repertoire into a routine for competitions under the guidance of Sgt. Hewitt.

There are two important parts of drill ability, marching and rifle manual. Each is equally important. Developing a precise rifle manual is a prime goal of the team. In Exchange Arms the four squads form two groups to execute an intricate exchange of weapons.

In fancy drill a precision platoon creates original movements for individual use. The kneebend is the basis for a group of movements with the Dixie Drill Platoon. With many variations, it is a strong complement to the rifle manual. Originality in movements and precision in execution are the reasons for the platoon's success..

Staff members, Debbie Mauldin, Jeneal Waggoner, Cathey O'Donnell, and Andrea Sherrill complete typing assignments. Hours of work are spent writing and preparing copy, alphabetizing, planning, indexing, and finishing up endless other details.

Drawing final drafts requires accuracy.

While organizing action shots, Sports Editor, Roy Pool, plans layouts for his section.

Staff members work together on indexing.

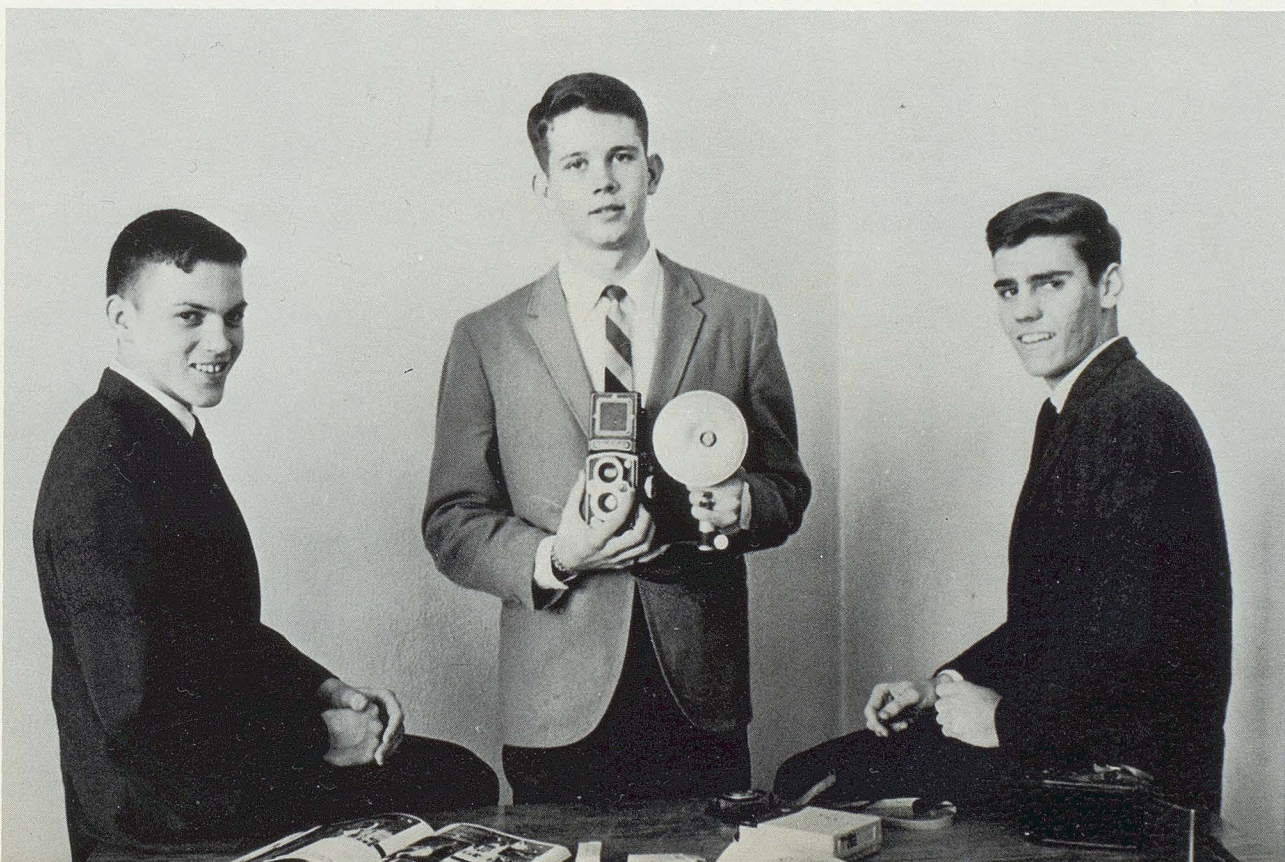

Tome Walters, Military Editor, studies pictures of the R.O.T.C. section and the design for a layout begins to take shape.

Suzanne Brown, Picture Editor, works diligently in selecting pictures to portray Fair Park at its best in snapshots.

Sequoyah Staff Completes 1965 Edition

Photography Staff, Tarver Spivey, Bill Chandler, and Ronnie Aldrich take pictures and develop them to supplement snapshots and special requirements needed for the Sequoyah.

As Organizations Editor, Ann Benbow oversees the coverage and layout of all school organizations.

Class Editor, Mary Catherine Stawasz, studies layouts while working on new ideas for this year's class section.

Editor-in-Chief Alice Godwin, faculty sponsor Miss Truly Drake, and Organizations Editor Ann Benbow consult with Taylor Publishing Company representative Wayne Goodell at Dallas.

Rae Reynolds, Feature Editor, strives to improve the special features with fresh, imaginative ideas.

Well another day closer to graduation (for me that is.) AND YOURS! I'm too far off if you just come to think about you.

Sugar is sweet,
But you sure turned out to be a learn.

Lots of Luck.

Editor's Message

As editor-in-chief of your Sequoyah I would like to express my gratitude for the opportunity to have served you. It has been a privilege bringing satisfaction that will always be cherished.

Only with the assistance of many was this Sequoyah made possible. To Miss Truly Drake, who this year took the position of faculty advisor, I would like to offer my sincerest thanks for her time, her friendship, and her confidence in me. She has devoted a large part of her time to this tremendous task. Also to my fellow editors and staff members, who have worked closely together for many hours, goes a big "thank you."

Without the valuable time of our friends at Milburne's Studio and Taylor Publishing Company, we would have been at a loss. My thanks go especially to Mr. Milburne Alfred, Mr. James Cobb, and Mr. Wayne Goodell.

Now our task is complete, but the result is a lasting one. The friendships formed, the fun we had, the anxieties felt—all are held in memory. We of the Sequoyah Editorial Staff hope that we have accomplished our goal—a portrayal of each individual in his life at Fair Park, an accurate account of your school year 1965, and a treasury of memories for each of you.

Well Bob
 we've had a great time in Español
 this year. We've seen friends for many years and
 hope more to come.
 Good luck always.
 Walter Chiffin

Bob!
 It's been great being in your Spanish class and
 Band this past year.
 We've seen friends for a long time and hope for a long time to come.
 Lots of luck always
 Jaye Bumpgardner

Bob, This year has really been fun. I've enjoyed being in Spanish with you this year. Stay as funny & smart as you are & your future will be wide. Good Luck, Always.

Marilyn Brewster
 Sr. 65.

Bob,
 It has been nice knowing you this year in all our classes. Best of luck always,
 Roger Bryant

Bob,
 You're a real sweet boy,
 one of the sweetest, I've ever known. I hope we have some classes together again next year too, (maybe like Mrs.
 Goffron's room). You have a real great sense of humor that will carry you far.
 I'm sorry you couldn't go to that party too. God bless you.
 Andrea

Bob,
 This year has really been a lot of fun. I hope you had the best of luck
 have the year to come.
 You the year to come.
 Love
 Mary

Bob -

To a real sweet and cute boy. It has really been fun being in Spanish with you and every thing that we learned.
The best of luck to you always.

Bob,
So a real
sweet person (even though your nuts). I have enjoyed being in the same
Spanish class this year. I hope we will be in a class together next year. Good luck in anything you do.

Dan Jones

Bob,
Sure has been a joy knowing you
this year in Band
and Spanish. Lot's
of luck in the future.
Garrett Stearns

Best of Luck with your baseball.
Sory Slayton

Bob,
We've had a heck of a lot of fun. Good luck this summer.
